Dear Bob:

RE: Systemwide Final Review of Proposed New Policy – APM 430, Visiting Scholars

The latest version of APM430 was reviewed by the UCR committees on Research, Academic Personnel and International Education, and by the Graduate Council. With the exception of the Committee on Research (CoR), the reviewers declined to opine or did not have additional comments. CoR noticed that desirable candidates for the Visiting Scholar title may not have an appropriate terminal degree and suggest the following modification to 430-10 (added text in italics):

430-10 Criteria for Appointment.

Visitors must possess a terminal degree or have experience appropriate to their status, or may be an undergraduate student. Their appointment must serve an academic purpose for the unit in which they are visiting.

Sincerely yours,

Jose Wudka

Professor of Physics & Astronomy and Chair of the Riverside Division
