Re: Review of the Proposal to establish the Ted and Jo Dutton Endowed Presidential Chair for Education Policy and Politics in the Graduate School of Education

The Committee on Planning and Budget has reviewed the proposal to establish the Ted and Jo Dutton Endowed Presidential Chair for Education Policy and Politics in the Graduate School of Education and is unable to support the proposal as submitted.

According to the Endowed Chairs procedure and policies, faculty of affected departments are required to be consulted. The original documentation showed evidence that GSOE's Executive Committee was consulted. However as the school is not comprised of departments, CPB feels that all GSOE faculty may be affected by this endowment and should have been consulted in a meaningful manner.

CPB seeks clarification on why only the GSOE Executive Committee was consulted and if applicable, strongly recommends for meaningful faculty consultation by all GSOE faculty be included in the proposal.
