RE: APM - 210-1-d, Review and Appraisal Committees

The BCOE Executive Committee endorses the final version of APM-210-d, which now provides specific examples of activities deemed to promote diversity and equal opportunity. The language in this version is designed to avoid misinterpretation of how such activities of a faculty member will be evaluated in the academic personnel process.

The last sentence of the 'clean' version of APM-210-d is missing a comma between the words 'populations' and 'should'.
