Re: VPAP request for input on length of Statements/Responses

The Committee on Academic Personnel met on April 4, 2016 to discuss the VPAP's request for input on extending the length of department letters and self-statements from two to three pages as well as placing a page limit on the candidate's response to the department letter. The Committee feels that the guidelines currently stated in the Call regarding these three documents are sufficient and does not recommend instituting changes at this time.
