To be adopted:

Present

The major requirements for the B.A. degree in History/Law and Society are as follows:

1. Requirements for History (48 units)
   All requirements for the B.A. in History

2. Requirements for Law and Society (36 units)
   a) PHIL 007 or PHIL 007H
   b) LWSO 100
   c) One course chosen from the following list:
      ECON111, PSYC 012, SOC 110A (or equivalent course in research methods)
   d) Five courses chosen from the following list: ANTH 127, ECON 119, HISE 153, PHIL 183, POSC 167, SOC 159, (One of these courses may be replaced by a substitute choice from a list of courses published annually by the Law and Society Faculty Committee. Not more than two of the courses taken to meet this requirement may be from the same department.)
   e) LWSO 193

Note: In filling the dual requirements of the major, students may not count more than two courses toward both parts of their total requirements (History requirements and Law and Society requirements). The History courses that may fill the dual requirements include HISE 153 (History of the Common Law), and HISA 120A-HISA 120B (The Supreme Court and the Constitution).

Justification of proposed change: Add POSC 114 to section 2.c) for the Law and Society major requirements. This course is a social science methods course at the same introductory level as the other methods courses. In addition, the change would give students increased flexibility in how they fulfill the methods course requirement.

Editorial changes made for consistency within all Law and Society majors.
