Changes in the Economics Major

Present economics major requirements

The major requirements for the B.A. degree in Economics are as follows:

1. Lower-division requirements (16 units)
   a) ECON 002, ECON 003
   b) MATH 009A, MATH 009B

2. Upper-division requirements (48 units)
   c) ECON 102A, ECON 102B
   d) ECON 103A, ECON 103B
   e) Either
      ECON123/HISA 123
      or ECON 125
   f) ECON 101/STAT 101
      and ECON 107
   g) At least 20 additional upper-division units in Economics, including
      at least one course
      from ECON 171
      through ECON 185

Note: No Internship courses may be counted toward the upper-division electives in Economics. MATH 009A-MATH 009B may also be used to meet breadth requirements.

The requirements for the B.A. degree in Economics listed in this catalog apply only to first-year students entering in Fall 1999 and thereafter. All other students—continuing, transferring, and readmitting—may follow former requirements as applicable under the catalog rights policy for undergraduate degrees. A list is available at the Department of Economics.

Justification: The requirements to the major are being updated to reflect new upper-division courses that have been created. No new requirements have been instituted. Existing requirements have been altered to incorporate the new courses.
