To be adopted:

Proposal to Establish a Minor in Law and Society

PROPOSED:

Upper Division: Six courses for at least 24 units

1. LWSO 100. Introduction to Law and Society
2. Three courses chosen from the courses listed below:
   ANTH 127 Political Anthropology
   ECON 119 Law and Economics
   HISE 153 History of the Common Law
   PHIL 165 Philosophy of Law
   POSC 167 Constitutional Law: Fundamental Freedoms
   PSYC 175 Psychology and Law
   SOC 159 Sociology of Law
3. Two courses chosen from the courses listed below:
   ENSC 174 Law, Institutions, and the Environment
   HISA 120A History of the Supreme Court
   HISA 120B History of the Supreme Court
   HISE 123 Law and Society in Medieval Europe
   PHIL 164 Philosophy of Justice
   LWSO 175E-Z Topics in Law and Society
   POSC 111 Democracy and the Social Contract
   POSC 166 Judicial Politics and Policy-Making
   POSC 168 Constitutional Law and Criminal Justice
   POSC 186: Regulation: A Political Perspective
JUSTIFICATION:

The cooperative major is very popular, and currently has almost 500 majors distributed across the above seven departments. The minor would be available to any student in any department in any college within the university. Currently, the Law and Society major is only available to students whose primary area of study is within one of the seven cooperating majors (Anthropology, Economics, History, Philosophy, Political Science, Psychology, and Sociology).

APPROVALS:

Approved by the Law and Society Committee on April 21, 2004.
Approved by the Executive Committee of the College of H&SS 12/1/05
Approved by the Committee on Educational Policy: January 17, 2006