To be adopted:

Proposed Change to College of Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences
Regulation HSR 2.3.6

PRESENT:

2.3.6 Courses may be added until the end of the third week of instruction with the consent of the instructor. No course may be added after that time without approval of the Associate Dean. Any addition that would increase the student's academic load to more than 48 units must also be approved by academic advisor. (Am 23 Feb 78) (Am 25 May 00) HSR 2.03.07 A student may add a course up to the end of the second full week of instruction. With the approval of the instructor and advisor, a student may also add a course during the third full week of instruction. (En 21 Nov 02)

PROPOSED:

2.3.6 Courses may be added until the end of the third week of instruction with the consent of the instructor. No course may be added after that time without approval of the Associate Dean. Any addition that would increase the student's academic load to more than 20 units must also be approved by the student’s academic advisor. (Am 23 Feb 78) (Am 25 May 00) HSR 2.03.07 A student may add a course up to the end of the second full week of instruction. With the approval of the instructor and advisor, a student may also add a course during the third full week of instruction. (En 21 Nov 02)

JUSTIFICATION:

This change will take into account the conversion of four-unit courses to five-unit courses. It will also bring CHASS more into line with the other UC campuses: UCD (21 units); UCI (20 units); UCLA (19 units); UCSB (21 units); UCSC (19 units); UCSD (22 units).
