The UCR Academic Senate is the divisional body for the Riverside campus of the UC Academic Senate, through which the faculty exercises its right and responsibility to participate in university governance, as codified in 1920 by the University of California's Board of Regents [Standing Order 105.2]. Among its responsibilities, the Academic Senate determines academic policy; sets conditions for admission and granting of degrees; authorizes and supervises courses and curricula; advises the administration on faculty appointments and promotions; and advises the administration on budgets and issues of faculty welfare.
