Proposed Changes to the Languages and Literature/Classical Studies Minor

PRESENT:

Classical Studies Minor

The Classical Studies minor offers students a fundamental understanding of classical language and culture which form the basis of much of western civilization. The minor naturally complements liberal arts degrees in many areas, including History, Art History, Philosophy, English, and Religious Studies. Students profit from the skills associated with a degree in the classics, such as enhancement of analytical and critical abilities, communication skills, and verbal proficiency.

JUSTIFICATIONS:

Change to title of the minor:
The addition of the term “Languages and Literatures” before the slash reflects a departmental initiative to gather all majors and minors administered by the Department of Comparative Literature and Foreign Languages under the same umbrella term. The department majors were changed in 2011-2012.

Lower-division courses deleted in 1.
CLA 27A and CLA 27B were not offered regularly and are no longer active.

Courses added to part 4.(c):
The department has updated the list of electives to include appropriate courses added after the original minor was approved. Moved LATN 190 so arranged in alphabetical order in string of course choices.

The courses listed on the proposed minor are active and will be offered regularly.
