APPENDIX
   Academic Senate Committee Attendance Report, 2013-2014

May 22, 2014

P. Keller, Acting Secretary-Parliamentarian
Riverside Division of the Academic Senate
MEETING
The Riverside Division of the Academic Senate met on Tuesday, February 25, 2014 at 2:15 p.m. in the Genomics Auditorium Room 1102A. Chair J. Wudka presided. The meeting was attended by 50 members of the Riverside Division of the Academic Senate.

MINUTES
The Minutes of the Regular Meeting of November 26, 2013 were approved as presented.

ANNOUNCEMENTS BY THE PRESIDENT
There were no announcements by the President

ANNOUNCEMENTS BY THE CHANCELLOR AT RIVERSIDE
Chancellor Kim A. Wilcox addressed the Division.

UC Riverside is one of eleven leading universities who are part of the University Innovations Alliance, a coalition that is developing programs to increase undergraduate success, particularly for low income and under-represented students. The Alliance is seeking funding from the Ford, Lumina and Gates Foundations, which have shown an interest in its work.

The Chancellor stressed that all great universities need to be constantly assessing themselves, and praised the work of the Graduation Rate Task Force which had created a list of 37 recommendations for the continued development of the campus.

President Napolitano has identified the University of California’s relationship with Mexico as a key strategic partnership for the coming years, and has invited UC Riverside to be the lead campus in this initiative.

The Chancellor has received the report from the Capital Programs review team and intends to move forward with the recommendations immediately. The review includes recommendations for accountability structures and how programs are funded.

The Office of the President has completed a systemwide campus climate survey. The report is due to be shared with the Regents on March 19, 2014 and will then be shared publically. The Chancellor praised the Campus Climate Task Force for their contribution and leadership.

The Chancellor then offered the Division the opportunity to ask questions. The Chancellor was asked if he will make the University Club a capital program priority. The Chancellor replied that he sees the value in having a membership club for faculty, but does not foresee investment in a new physical building. However, the Chancellor did explain that there has been space set aside in the Orbach Library for faculty reading and there will be social and meeting space set aside for faculty in the redevelopment of the Barn area.

The Chancellor was then asked to provide some background to the target of 25,000 students by 2020, particularly when the number of graduating high school students in California is decreasing. The Chancellor responded that the target is part of the long range development plan agreed upon by the Regents and that although the number of high school graduates is declining, the demand for university places overall is increasing.

ANNOUNCEMENTS BY THE VICE CHANCELLORS
There were no announcements by the Vice Chancellors.

ANNOUNCEMENTS BY THE DEANS OR OTHER EXECUTIVE OFFICERS
There were no announcements by the Deans.

Chair Wudka called upon the Secretary Parliamentarian to provide the report on election results. The Secretary Parliamentarian informed the Division that the results of the elections could be found on page eight of the meeting agenda.

Chair Wudka then called upon the University Librarian, Steven Mandeville-Gamble to update the Division on the University’s Open Access Policy. Mr. Mandeville-Gamble explained that the movement towards Open Access is an attempt to redress the “gift-economy” that has become prevalent in the journal publishing industry, which costs universities billions of dollars per year for materials their faculty create. The Academic Senate approved an Open Access policy in July 2013, with an initial trial at San Francisco, Irvine and Los Angeles. The system is designed to ensure that campuses will have access to UC faculty-authored materials even if the UC does not subscribe to journals. By having an opt-out policy rather than opt-in, the university has a greater bargaining power when negotiating with publishers. The California Digital Library has been communicating with publishers informing them of the policy and has not yet received any negative responses.

ANNOUNCEMENTS BY THE CHAIR
Chair Wudka again presided and provided the Division with some brief administrative updates:

- The Senate is currently collecting feedback on healthcare options through an online survey and he encouraged Division members to participate.
- The search for the new Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost is progressing and is on schedule to meet the deadline of a summer appointment.
- The University has issued a new rebenching policy which is disadvantageous to UC Riverside but not as bad as it could have been.
- The University is now smoke-free and President Napolitano has announced that she hopes the University will be carbon neutral by 2025.

SPECIAL ORDERS
The Consent Calendar was unanimously approved.

The annual reports of standing committees, annual reports of the faculties, degree reports and regular reports of standing committees and faculties were received and placed on file.

REPORT OF THE REPRESENTATIVE TO THE ASSEMBLY
Professor Bahram Mobasher provided the Division with an update from the Assembly meeting on February 12, 2014.

- The Senate Chair provided a report on graduate doctoral education. More funding will be requested at the next Regent meeting in May 2014.
- UCOP is establishing an internal efficiency review to reduce travel, streamline reporting and cap staffing.
• The Council approved the Open Access Policy in July 2013.
• There is a shortage of Tier 1 hospitals in the UC Care program. The Health Care Task Force is fully engaged.
• The state government allocation of $10 million for funding towards online teaching will continue through 2014-15.
• The Climate Survey has been completed and will be presented to the Regents in March. The campuses are then charged with analyzing the report and providing recommendations.
• Tuition fees have been frozen. The President has promised $15 million in funding to graduate students, post-doctoral students and undocumented students.
• A new policy has been proposed on self-supporting programs and is under systemwide Senate review.
• The University is working with Community Colleges to prepare and support transfer students financially. Transfer and diversity rates are down.
• A report has been produced on the commercialization of research to further innovation on campuses.

REPORTS OF SPECIAL COMMITTEES
There were no reports of Special Committees

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES AND FACULTIES
Professor Linda Walling introduced and moved for adoption of the proposed changes to Bylaw 8.4, found on page 39 of the full agenda. This motion was adopted with a vote of 40 in favor, zero against and one abstention.

Professor Christina Schwenkel introduced and moved adoption of the proposed changes to Bylaw 8.15.1, found on page 41 of the full agenda. The motion was adopted.

ATTEST:

P. Gorecki, Secretary-Parliamentarian
Riverside Division of the Academic Senate

Alastair Kay
Recording Secretary
2013-2014 CHANCELLOR’S AWARDS FOR EXCELLENCE IN UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH AND CREATIVE ACHIEVEMENT

Faculty Recipients:

Professor Allen Mills, Physics and Astronomy:

In 13 years at the University of California, Riverside, Dr. Allen Mills has mentored 37 undergraduate students in laboratory research, despite having an industrial background which offered little experience in working with students. Of those 37 students, ten have co-authored journal articles with Dr. Mills (four of which appeared in peer-reviewed journals) and eight have obtained or are pursuing PhDs at some of the leading institutions in the country. Dr. Mills believes one of his main roles as an instructor is to challenge and inspire students not only to learn, but to achieve goals beyond what they themselves think they are capable of. Dr. Mills is dedicated to ensuring opportunities are available for minority students, having mentored 13 minority students.

Professor Jingsong Zhang, Chemistry:

Since 1998, Dr. Jingsong Zhan has mentored 32 undergraduate research students and has been proactive in integrating independent research opportunities into the chemistry curriculum. Since 200, Dr. Zhang has mentored 160 independent exploratory research projects and, supported by a $2m grant from the NSF, has been instrumental in establishing first-year laboratory research experiences in Freshman Learning Communities. Five of Dr. Zhang’s students have appeared with him as co-authors in peer-reviewed publications and his students have made 19 scholarly presentations of their work at conferences. Dr. Zhang’s undergraduate research students have also received 13 awards under his mentorship. Eight of Dr. Zhang’s students have been admitted to Ph.D. programs, and three students have subsequently earned Ph.D degrees in chemistry. Dr. Zhang is proactive in increasing diversity in scientific research; of the undergraduate students he has mentored, 18 are women, eight are Hispanic-American and two are African-American.

Regarding the addition of BIEN 001 (1):
This colloquium-based course is being added to the 1st year of the recommended course schedule and the departmental program requirements as a general introduction and survey to the field of bioengineering.

Regarding the BIEN 010 (4) change:
The revised course will include engineering design. The increased units from 2 units to 4 units are required to account for the increased work of the students. This is being moved in the recommended course schedule from the 1st year to the 2nd year in the program in order for students to maintain at least one departmental course in each of their first two years.

Regarding the addition of BIEN 101 (4):
BIEN 101 was added as substitute for BCH 100 to increase the engineering content of the major. This course replaces BCH 100 Elementary Biochemistry as a required course in the BS Bioengineering degree program. The Bioengineering Department is dropping Organic Chemistry 112C as a requirement for the BS Bioengineering degree and BCH 100 requires CHEM 112C as a prerequisite, thus bioengineering students will no longer have the prerequisites for BCH 100. Letter grade only this course is for majors only.

Regarding the BIEN 175A-B-C changes (2-4-4):
The current BIEN 175 series spans only two quarters (4 units of BIEN 175A and 4 units of BIEN 175B). This change to a three quarter structure has been proposed to

a. accommodate increased course content, specifically the inclusion of business plan development in collaboration with the School of Business Administration and additional lectures on different job types in bioengineering industry given by alumni in those respective fields, and

b. to give students additional working time to develop and complete significantly more substantial design projects geared for competitive standing in national competitions such as the BMEStart and NIH DEBUT competitions.

There has been no reduction in the overall amount of material covered in the BIEN 175 series; these changes are proposed to provide for additional time to cover the new and increased content introduced over the last few years of the course (2 units of BIEN 175A, 4 units of BIEN 175B, 4 units of BIEN 175C) without increasing the unit count devoted to this course during any single quarter. The grading description has been changed to reflect the proposed additional quarter of BIEN 175C.

Regarding the removal of BIEN 159 (4):
The primary reason for removing BIEN 159 as a required core course is that many of the topics in BIEN 159 regarding enzymes, metabolism, and engineering of bioprocesses are covered in the newly introduced BIEN 101 and the existing core course BIEN 125.

Here is the catalog description of BIEN 159 that is being removed as a required course

<tr>
<td>Provides an overview of biochemical processes in cells and their use in developing new products and processes. Presents cellular processes such as metabolism, protein synthesis, enzyme behavior, and cell signaling and control from an engineering viewpoint of modeling and control.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Regarding the removal of CHEM 112C (4):
CHEM 112C was dropped because about half the topics are not relevant to the major, and the other topics are treated in BIEN 101, BIEN 125 and BIEN 135.

Technical Electives:
Over the past 3 years, a number of technical electives taught by Bioengineering faculty have been approved. The changes to the technical elective list are meant to properly reflect these new courses in departmental program requirements. Moreover, the overall number of departmental technical electives is sufficient to fulfill the 16 unit requirement without requiring students to enroll in electives taught in other departments, and so the list of pre-approved technical electives has been reduced to just the ones taught within the department. Classes outside this list can be used to fulfill the technical elective requirement with the approval of the departmental Undergraduate Advisor.

Major Requirements

1. No Change
   a) No Change

2. No Change
   a) No Change
The choice of technical electives must ensure that the upper division requirements include at least one coherent sequence of at least three (3) electrical engineering courses to ensure depth in one area of electrical engineering. Example course sequences are available through the Student Affairs Office in the College of Engineering or student.engr.ucr.edu.

JUSTIFICATION:
The Department of Electrical Engineering has been building the Power Engineering area by adding undergraduate courses and hiring appropriate faculty. Given that this foundation is in place, the EE faculty considers it the appropriate time to change the catalog text to reflect the change. The Computer Engineering (CEN) focus is deleted because the EE and CSE departments now share a CEN degree program.

The CEN program is listed separately in the Catalog.

ENGR 160 is a recently approved course that covers optimization methods for engineering designs and system analysis. It is an important subject for electrical engineering as designs of many electrical devices, circuits and systems involve some form of optimization. Adding this technical elective strengthens the electrical engineering curriculum.

Proposed Changes to the Languages and Literatures/Arabic Minor

PRESENT:

Arabic Minor

This minor introduces the field of Arabic studies, and offers training in the Arabic language and in the close reading of texts—including poetry, literature, philosophy, theoretical writings, essays, and film—with attention to problems of translation, the history of disciplines, and the formation of institutions. It teaches students to read cultural objects, practices, texts, and institutions as active sites of translation, negotiation, contestation, and invention.

Minor Requirements

Change to title of the minor:
The addition of the term “Languages and Literatures” before the slash reflects a departmental initiative to gather all majors and minors administered by the Department of Comparative Literature and Foreign Languages under the same umbrella term. The department majors were changed in 2011-2012. Since we are deleting the Asian Literatures and Cultures heading, we would like to move the minor so it is under the Languages and Literatures/Chinese heading along with the major.

Addition and deletion of courses that satisfy the lower- and upper-division requirements
The new lists reflect courses recently added to the curriculum by new faculty hires.

Change in order of course choices in 1.b) and 2.b)

Addition of courses taught in German to 2.a)

Change to title of the major
The addition of the term "Languages and Literatures" before the slash reflects a departmental initiative to gather all majors and minors administered by the Department of Comparative Literature and Foreign Languages under the same umbrella term. The major was changed to Literatures and Languages/Japanese in 2011-12. Since we are deleting the Asian Literatures and Cultures heading, we would like to move the minor so it is under the Languages and Literatures/Japanese heading along with the major.

Change to description
This description simplifies and clarifies the proposed fields of study and outcomes for the minor.

Addition and deletion of courses that satisfy the lower- and upper-division requirements
The new lists reflect courses recently added to the curriculum by new faculty hires.

Clarification in 2a
To avoid a common misconception, we explain that the third-year Japanese series 101ABC is not required of students whose language proficiency is already beyond this level. We explain how advanced students can fulfill the advanced language training other ways.

Elimination of option 2c and expansion of requirement 2b
Since the Japanese minor only requires 12 units of upper-division content-course work, we would prefer to see them all focus on Japan, and to get rid of the option of studying other cultures and literatures in Asia. This is especially feasible now that we have expanded our upper-division offerings in Japanese.

Change in order of course offering in 1b and 2b
Moved courses so they would be in alphabetical order with the JPN rubric first when a cross-listed course.

The UCR Washington Academic Internship Program provides undergraduate students with a multi-dimensional educational experience in Washington, D.C. Students undertake academic pursuits as well as cultural and social activities. The program combines course work with field research and internship experience. Students also have the opportunity to tour local sites and dialogue with distinguished professionals in the Speaker Series. For more information see UCR Washington Academic Internship Program in the front of this catalog.

Curriculum
The UCDC program is open to all UCR undergraduates with upper-division standing and a 3.0 cumulative GPA. All UCDC participants remain UCR students during the program. Students must be accepted into the UCDC program at UCR, be residents of the UC Washington Center, and enroll in an academic internship taking place in the Washington DC region in order to participate in the UCDC curriculum.

During the Fall, Winter, and Spring quarters, students enroll in 12 to 16 units comprising internship units, a seminar, and an optional elective course. For summer enrollments, please consult with the program staff at UCR.

Internship (4-8 units). The focal point of the academic program is the internship, which is based on the students’ interests and major, and it is arranged before the student leaves for Washington, DC. Students must enroll in a 198I course, which is usually taken in the student’s major department. These courses may be letter graded or S/NC depending on discipline. Visit www.ucdc.ucr.edu for sample internships.

Seminar in Washington DC (4 units). UCR students must enroll in a seminar from the UCDC 191 A-W series. Students meet weekly with an instructor and conduct research linked to their internship. Students must take seminars for a letter grade only, and should consult with their major department concerning the applicability of UCDC seminars to major requirements.

Elective (4 units). Students choosing an elective may select courses from the UCDC 150-159 series. Students may take these courses for a letter grade or for S/NC by petition. Students should consult with their major department about the grading basis and about the applicability of UCDC electives to major requirements.

Further information on the courses available each quarter is available at http://www.ucdc.edu/academic. Students should consult with their departmental advisors and with the program staff before enrolling.
JUSTIFICATION:

Overview: The UCDC program is implementing a new method for enrolling UCR students who participate in the Washington DC Internship program (UCDC). This new method relies on courses in the UCR catalog that correspond to the Washington Center’s new and stable curriculum for quarter-campus undergraduates from around the UC system.

The new catalog copy proposed here does not change in the program curriculum or requirements in any substantive way. Implementing this new description, and the associated UCDC courses, will change the way students from UCR enroll in the UCDC program, but not what they enroll in. The changes will greatly decrease staff overhead at the program office, at UCDC, and at the Registrar’s office by eliminating intercampus registration for electives. It will also provide greater accuracy in registration, since students will be recorded as taking specific courses, rather than ‘bucket’ courses like HASS 191W, to fulfill their seminar requirement at UCDC. Finally, the new curriculum and course listings will make the program’s academic component much more transparent to students and departments, leading to eased academic integration and improved recruitment.

The UCDC rubric described in this proposal has been authorized by the CHASS Dean’s office. The courses described in this proposal are being simultaneously proposed for approval through the regular pathway, and are pending approval.

Justification: Listing of committee: Previously, the UCDC program was listed in the catalog together with one cross-listed course for students’ required seminar enrollment: ENGR 191W/HASS 191W/NASC 191W (which will be deleted). The new system relies on courses under a UCDC rubric, namely UCDC 150-159 for elective enrollments, and UCDC 191A-W (9 courses total) for seminar enrollment. To enable UCDC to offer these courses, the CHASS dean’s office has authorized a committee-in-charge to serve as the faculty review body. The new catalog copy therefore lists the members of the committee-in-charge, as for other non-departmental units.

Justification: Addition of curriculum description: Previously, in the absence of UCDC courses, the UCDC curriculum was described in the beginning of the general catalog among other special programs. Now that we have a stable curriculum of courses, the curriculum needs to be described in connection with these courses to ensure transparency. We also feel that listing the curricular requirements under the UCDC section of the catalog will make it easier for students to find, assisting in recruitment to this valuable program.

Justification: changes in curriculum description: The curriculum copy draws from the curriculum description section of the entry found in the front of the 2013-2014 catalog, which remains valid. The catalog copy at UCDC contains the following amplifications and changes:

  - Enrollment and units: distinguishes the summer from regular quarter programs more explicitly, and details the distribution of possible units. This will increase transparency for students.
  - Internship: The identity of the internship course as a 198-I course, normally but not necessarily in the student’s major department, is established. This ensures students are aware of the requirement to enroll in a 198-I, and clarifies that the grading basis is established by the department involved.
Seminar: amended to reflect the change from a single seminar to a slate of seminars (UCDC 191A-W). Clarifies letter grade requirement. Adds a reminder that students should consult their major department about applicability to major requirements. These changes clarify the curricular requirements for the seminar.

Elective: amended to reflect the new slate of electives (UCDC 150-159). Clarifies grading basis options, and adds advice to consult major department on applicability and grading basis. These changes clarify the curricular requirements for the elective.

The new catalog copy thus provides detailed guidance that corresponds to the general description in the opening of the catalog while informing the students of the requirements and issues they need to be aware of.

BCH 162 replacing BCH 102 as a requirement for a BCH degree
The material covered in BCH 162 is currently covered in BCH 102. Since establishing BCH 101, the content of BCH 102 has been significantly upgraded, so the need for BCH 102 is no more. We wish to utilize BCH 162 which has not been taught for some years.

Proposed Changes to course requirements for the Bachelor of Science (B.S.) and Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) degree in Environmental Sciences

PRESENT:

Major Requirements

The major requirements for both the B.A. and the B.S. degrees in Environmental Sciences are as follows: Students must fulfill MATH 008B or MATH 009A; MATH 009B; CHEM 001A, CHEM 001B, CHEM 001C; BIOL 002 or BIOL 005A; BIOL 003 or BIOL 005A; ENSC 001, ENSC 002, ENSC 006, or ENSC 143A, ENSC 100, ENSC 101, and ENSC 102 with a grade point average of 2.0 or better and no grade lower than a C-. If a grade lower than a C- is received in 2 or more core courses required for the major, either in separate courses or repetitions of the same course, the student may be discontinued from the major. Students must, under such circumstances, petition the department to remain in the major. Students are also required to choose one of the options and satisfactorily complete the option requirements. Students in Environmental Sciences are required to demonstrate adequate progress towards earning the degree. Adequate progress is defined as completion of MATH009B—prior to the beginning of the Winter Quarter of the second year of residence or Junior standing (>90 units) and at least one course from ENSC 100, ENSC 101, or ENSC 102 must be completed prior to the end of the third year of residence or senior standing (>135 units).

3. Additional Mathematics and related disciplines requirements (12 units)
   a) CS 010
1. A justification for adding Math 31 as a requirement for all of the math majors.
   - Courses like Math 31 are taught on many UC campuses. The title usually given to such courses is Applied Linear Algebra.
   - Many Community Colleges have a linear algebra course, which by State rules is necessarily lower division. These courses will now articulate with Math 31, which will greatly facilitate transfer from Community Colleges to UCR.
   - Replacing Math 113 by Math 31 means that Computer Science students can take Math 31 in their first year and use linear algebra much earlier in their program.
   - With Math 31 students in the Applied Math program can take courses like Math 146ABC earlier in their program.
   - Flexibility in scheduling is enhanced by the creation Math 31. Students coming from Math 9B can now choose from Math 10A, Math 11, Math 31 and Math 46.

- The addition of Math 31 will prepare students for the theoretical parts of Math 131, and reduce the number of repeats.

(This change was approved already for all majors except the BA, since Math 31 is now a prerequisite of Math 131)

2. A justification for deleting Math 132 as a requirement for all of the applied math majors.
   Applied Math majors would be required to take Math 31 + Math 131 instead of Math 131 + Math 132. Math 31 is a more appropriate course for applied math majors, and has the advantage that it can be taken sooner.

3. A total unit count (including breadth requirements) for all of the math majors.
   B.A. program requires 148-174 (current) and 153-179 (proposed).
   Pure Math requires 161-172 (no change)
   Applied Math, BIOL requires 162-169 (current) units and 158-165 (proposed)
   Applied Math, CHEM requires 176-186 (current) and 172-182 (proposed)
   Applied Math, ECON requires 165-181 (current) and 161-177 (proposed)
   Applied Math, ENSC 168-176 (current) and 162-172 (proposed)
   Applied Math, PHYS requires 157-172 (current) and 153-168 (proposed)
   Applied Math, STAT requires 161-172 (current) and 157-168 (proposed) Computational Math requires 173-184 (current) and 169-180 (proposed)
   Secondary School Teachers requires 178-192 (current) and 183-197 (proposed)

Note: It was recently approved that Math 31 is a prerequisite for Math 131. Since all our programs except the BA require Math 131, the 5 units for Math 31 have been effectively already added. For the applied math programs, the removal of Math 132 means a decrease of 4 units. We're adding 5 units to all except applied math.

Major Requirements

Some of the following requirements for the Microbiology major may also fulfill the College’s breadth requirements. Consult with an advisor for course planning.

1. Core Curriculum (72-77 units)
   Students must complete all required Core Curriculum courses with a grade of “C-” or better and with a cumulative GPA in the courses of at least 2.0. Grades of “D” or “F” in two required courses, either separate courses or repetitions of the same course, are grounds for discontinuation from the major.
   a) BIOL 005A, BIOL 05LA, BIOL 005B, BIOL 005C
   b) CHEM001A, CHEM001B, CHEM 001C, CHEM 01LA, CHEM 01LB, CHEM 01LC
   c) CHEM 112A, CHEM 112B, CHEM112C
   d) PHYS 002A, PHYS 002B, PHYS 02LA, PHYS 02LB, PHYS 002C, PHYS 02LC
   e) MATH 008B or MATH 009A, MATH 009B
   f) STAT 100A
   g) BCH 100, or BCH 110A and BCH 110B

2. Upper-Division Requirements (37 units)
   a) Major Core (19 units): BIOL 102, BIOL
b) Major Electives. A minimum of 18 units from the following to be selected in consultation with a faculty advisor: BIOL 128/CBNS 128, BIOL 157, BIOL 158, CBNS 101, ENSC 120/NEM 120, MCBL 120/BIOL 120/PLPA 120, MCBL 120L/BIOL 120L/PLPA 120L, MCBL 122/BIOL 122, MCBL 123/BIOL 123/PLPA 123, MCBL 124/BIOL 124, MCBL 141/ENSC 141, MCBL 188, MCBL 1972, PLPA 134/BIOL 134, PLPA 134L/BIOL 134L

Justification:

The motivation for the change is that microbiology is currently one of only three life science majors that allow grades below C- in core courses, and we want to protect the integrity of the major and prevent students who are discontinued from other life science majors due to poor performance to flock to microbiology as a major of last resort. In addition, earning at least a C- in each core course establishes a foundation for success at the upper division level. Because this change brings microbiology in line with most of the other life science majors, we don't anticipate that it will impact student participation in a significant way. This change will only affect students who have not yet taken these classes.

   b) 8 additional units of upper division Physics electives.
   c) 8 units of upper division Engineering electives.

Students seeking an emphasis in environmental physics or chemical physics should consult with an advisor. The physics electives may be selected on an individual basis to stress one of these concentrations.

Students continuing on to graduate school are encouraged to take additional upper-division courses in Mathematics, such as MATH 146A, MATH 146B, MATH 146C, MATH 165A, MATH 165B, and MATH 113.
Students may wish to earn a Minor in Mathematics which requires an additional 24 units of upper division math.

To graduate, a minimum grade point average of 2.00 (C) is necessary overall and in the upper-division courses taken for the major (courses listed under 2.).

Bachelor of Arts
For the B.A. degree, additional units are required in Humanities, Social Sciences, and foreign language to meet the breadth requirements.

Proposed Changes to Education Minor

PRESENT:

1. PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
   a) The Education Minor offers to any undergraduate student an introduction to issues and practices of education and research in public schools. Students from any major are invited to pursue a minor in education.
   b) Students in the Education Minor may select from a variety of courses that may focus on a particular interest or may sample across aspects of the curriculum. Specific areas of interest that are reflected in the course offerings include: Special education, literacy and language, curriculum and teaching strategies, and educational research.
   c) The Education Minor does not lead to a teaching credential, however some of the courses will satisfy UCR credential program requirements. Students who are interested in pursuing a teaching credential should contact GSOE student services at (951) 827-5850.

2. PROGRAM ADMISSIONS AND ADMINISTRATION
   a) Students apply to the Education Minor by submitting a UC Riverside "Request to Declare/Drop a Minor" form.
   b) Once approved by the Education Minor Committee, the application goes to the student’s college for approval. Both approvals are required for admission.

c) The minimum qualifications are:
   (1) Present good academic standing with a minimum GPA of 2.0
   (2) Application filed no later than four quarters before expected graduation.

3. PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS
   a) The Education Minor consists of the satisfactory completion of 24 units in courses identified for the Education Minor Program. At least 18 units must be completed in upper division courses.

b) Candidates must maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0.

4. COURSE OFFERINGS
   a) The following courses will comprise the menu of electives for the Education Minor:
      EDUC 001, EDUC 002, EDUC 020, EDUC 030, EDUC 040, EDUC 044, EDUC 050, EDUC 100A, EDUC 100B, EDUC 109, EDUC 110, EDUC 112, EDUC 114, EDUC 116, EDUC 118, EDUC 120, EDUC 129, EDUC 130, EDUC 131, EDUC 139, EDUC 146/ETST 146, EDUC 172, EDUC 173, EDUC 174, EDUC 177A, EDUC 177B.

   b) All courses that candidates may want to use to satisfy the Teacher Credential program requirements must be completed with a minimum grade of "C". Minor in Education candidates must maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0.
b) Additional courses may be added to this list by proposals of academic units, or by petitions of students to take a suitable alternative course. Student petitions require the approval of the program advisor in the Education Minor. Students may not petition to take more than 8 units of courses outside of the identified courses for the Education Minor.

Student petitions require the approval of the program advisor in the Education Minor. Students may not petition to take more than 8 units of courses outside of the identified courses for the Education Minor.

JUSTIFICATION:

The proposed Minor in Education amendment broadens the menu of electives which students may elect towards their minor. This new menu provides more opportunity for students to enroll in courses toward their minor and to experience different fields of study in Education. The addition of lower and upper division courses provides opportunity to explore research being done in educational policy, curriculum and teaching strategies, special education, psychology, and literacy and language. The new list consists of eight new courses created specifically for the Education Minor and 8 new courses with discussions; identified with an S: EDUC xxxS. Effective 14W, the following two courses: EDUC 177A and 177B were renumbered to EDUC 175 and 176 respectively. However, we will be keeping EDUC 177A and 177B on the course list for students who took these courses before 14W and their course records were not affected by the renumbering.

To better serve our students, we propose the removal of the minimum grade “C” restriction and instead ask students to maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0; this will be more in line within the guidelines of the University. However, courses that candidates may want to use to satisfy the Teacher Credential program requirements must be completed with a minimum grade of “C”.

In most colleges, minor petitions must be filed at least two quarters before graduation. For 2013-14, our college will not be offering any 2-unit upper division Education minor courses. Reducing the minimum upper-division unit program requirement from 18 units to 16 (minimum upper-division unit policy university-wide) will encourage minor workload credit to be fully accepted and absorbed exclusively for the minor.

Proposed Changes to Business Administration

PRESENT:  PROPOSED:

Majors
The B.S. in Business Administration is a two-year upper-division major offered by the School of Business Administration (SoBA). Students can enroll in a Pre-Business status and are advised in CHASS during their freshman and sophomore years. The Pre-Business curriculum includes the prerequisites to the major and the college breadth requirements. After admission to the major, students are advised by the SoBA through its Office of Undergraduate Programs located at 2340 Olmsted Hall. The B.S. degree in Business Administration is conferred by the SoBA.

The program is accredited by the AACSB International - The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business.

Admission A limited number of students are accepted into the Business Administration major, chosen according to overall GPA. Students must apply for the major when they have completed not fewer than 75 and not more than 100 quarter units of college work. Final acceptance into the major is based on completion of all prerequisites and breadth requirements within a 100-quarter-unit limit, a GPA above 2.50 in major prerequisites, and cumulative GPA of at least 2.70. (Students who have not completed the foreign language breadth requirement may be accepted into the program, but they must complete the requirement before graduation.) Exceptions to the 100-quarter-unit maximum must be requested by petition.

UCR Students (excluding Pre-Business students) interested in changing major to Business Administration will be admissible to the Business Preparatory (BSPR), (which is not a major in UCR, but a holding group of transfer students who appear to be qualified for admission into business administration, but have some deficiencies which need to be completed before admission into business administration) status only if they can complete their deficiencies in breadth and/or major prerequisites within one quarter (the first quarter after admission into Bus-Preparatory).

The same rule will apply to students transferring in from a community college or a four-year school. In the event these students fail to meet this one quarter requirement, they will not be admitted into the BSPR category, and will be advised to find another major at UCR.

Students are encouraged to participate in at least one internship during their junior or senior year. Students interested in international business are encouraged to consider opportunities for study through the Education Abroad Program, which has centers affiliated with more than 150 institutions in 35 countries worldwide. For further details, visit UCR’s Off Campus Academic Experiences at eapoap.ucr.edu or call (951) 827-2508.

Outstanding academic achievement is recognized by the awarding of the Delta Sigma Pi Scholarship Key to a graduating senior. Other awards, presented on an annual basis, include the Wall Street Journal’s Student Achievement Award, the Bank of America Business Leaders Scholarship, Deloitte and Touche Scholarship, Gordon Blunden/Provident Savings Bank Business Scholarship, and the Ernst & Young Scholarship.

Graduating seniors are also eligible for the School of Business Administration Award for Academic and Service Excellence, and also the SoBA Concentration Area Awards, which recognizes the student with the best overall performance in each concentration area.

The Office of Undergraduate Business Programs will manage the process.

Students can declare one concentration.

No change.
An additional 12 units of Business Administration elective courses excluding BUS 190. See department for a list of approved Business Administration elective courses.

Double Concentration for Business Administration Students

Business Administration students can declare a second concentration within the School of Business Administration (SoBA). Declaring a second concentration is not permitted while on academic probation or during the last two quarters before graduation (150 units or more). Both concentrations must be completed within the maximum limit of 216 units, and approval must be obtained from his/her academic advisor. In such cases, all course requirements must be completed for each of the two concentrations chosen. If the student chooses a second concentration then he/she will be getting only one B.S. in Business, and the diploma will mention the primary concentration, but not the second concentration. However, if a business student wishes to add a second major in another college or school (other than SoBA), then he/she can. The Business major is the primary and the other major is the secondary. In this case he/she can be enrolled in only one concentration, and the rules of the second major will apply.

Majors with Administrative Studies Components

B.A. degrees are offered in Art History, Economics, History, Political Science, and Sociology with Administrative Studies. A B.S. degree is offered in Sociology with Administrative Studies. Specified departmental requirements are listed under respective departmental listings.

An additional 3 courses (at least 12 units) of Business Administration elective courses from BUS 111-BUS 199H, excluding BUS 190. Courses completed to satisfy the five-course concentration requirement may not be used to meet this requirement. Related courses outside of Business Administration may be approved to satisfy this requirement with the approval of the Associate Dean or Assistant Dean of Undergraduate Student Affairs of SoBA.

No change.

(9) Production Management: BUS 104/STAT 104, and two from BUS 105, BUS 122, BUS 127/STAT 127

JUSTIFICATION:

[For addition of Beta Gamma Sigma]: Beta Gamma Sigma is the only honors society to be recognized by AACSB International. Since SoBA is accredited by AACSB, it is important that we formally recognize our school’s membership in Beta Gamma Sigma by including it in our section regarding honors opportunities for students.

[For change to 12 unit Business Administration elective requirement]: This section has been modified to clarify the upper-division business elective requirement. Students can choose courses in any concentration and other independent study courses to satisfy this requirement, so the inclusion of the course range for approved elective courses will make this requirement easier for students to understand. In addition, the inclusion of the sentence for the approval of business-related courses outside of the School will provide flexibility for SoBA to allow students to satisfy major requirements in cases where the addition of courses outside of SoBA will enhance the educational goals and objectives of students. For example, for students concentrating in Finance, Economics courses may be approved, or for students concentrating in Information Systems, applicable courses in Computer Science may be approved. The review and approval for these courses will be determined by the Associate Dean or Assistant Dean overseeing the Undergraduate Business Program in SoBA.

[For removal of the double concentration paragraph and addition of statement for a maximum of one concentration]: Removal of this section will clarify ambiguity between double concentrations and double majors. With appropriate approval from the Associate Deans (or delegated representative), students can still declare double majors. However, to ensure time-to-degree and course availability for Business Administration students (and Business Administration minors and other majors requiring Business courses), students are only allowed to declare one concentration.

[For change to Administrative Studies requirements]: The change in the three-course Administrative Studies upper-division Business requirements aligns this requirement with the concentration options available for Business Administration students. The previous requirements reflect the Business Administration curriculum before significant changes in 2010. By codifying these requirements, we will ensure that Administrative Studies students are provided with the same courses that our major and minor students can complete.

Proposed Changes to Business Administration

PRESENT:

Minor
Students declaring a minor in Business Administration will petition the Office of Undergraduate Business Programs at least three quarters prior to graduation. That office will publicize the deadlines each quarter to all colleges and major departments.

Prerequisites for the minor in Business Administration are as follows:

1. Three lower-division courses (14 units) (must be completed with no grade lower than “C”): BUS 020, ECON 003, STAT 048

Requirements for the minor in Business Administration are as follows:

2. Six upper-division courses (24 units):
   a) Four courses from the following: BUS 101, BUS 103, BUS 104/STAT 104, BUS 105, BUS 106/ECON 134, BUS 108, one of BUS 102 or PHIL 116
   b) Two additional upper-division Business Administration courses.

PROPOSED:

No change.

2. Six upper-division courses (24 units):
   a) Four courses from the following: BUS 101, BUS 102, BUS 103, BUS 104/STAT 104, BUS 105, BUS 106/ECON 134, BUS 108
   b) Two additional upper-division Business Administration courses from BUS 100W-BUS 199H, excluding BUS 190. Courses completed to satisfy the four course requirement in section A above may not be used to meet this requirement.

JUSTIFICATION:

[For change to minor requirements]: This section has been modified in two ways. First, the requirement for an approved business elective course to satisfy section A has been change from BUS 102 or PHIL 116 to only BUS 102. Since PHIL 116 is a course outside of SoBA, we wish to ensure that students completing a business ethics requirement will complete the appropriate course in SoBA. The second modification is to clarify the two-course additional minor elective requirement. Students can choose courses in any concentration and other independent study courses to satisfy this requirement, so the inclusion of the course range for approved elective courses will make this requirement easier for students to understand.

The Committee on Academic Freedom met two times during AY2013-2014 as well as conducting committee activities via e-mail. Several issues that came before the UCR committee were raised at the systemwide meeting of the University Committee on Academic Freedom (UCAF) on March 27, 2014. To date, in addition to reaffirming its policy on Conflict of Interest, the Committee has commented on the following:

- Systemwide review of APM 025, 670, 671
- Systemwide review of APM 035
- Campus review of Riverside Divisional Bylaw 8.1.1
- Campus review of request to change CAP bylaw

The Committee is prepared to address any further issues brought during the remainder of the year.

The primary function of the Committee on Charges is to receive in writing, through the Chancellor or Chancellor’s designee, unresolved complaints regarding Faculty conduct, as per procedures described in SBL336 and UCR Division Appendix 5. The Committee may also be asked to opine on proposed revisions to Bylaws and Regulations which may be related to the charge of the committee.

Via email, the committee reviewed and approved the 13-14 Conflict of Interest Statement and considered system-wide review of proposed changes to Academic Personnel Manual (APM) Section 035, Appendices A-1 and A-2.

There were no disciplinary cases received by the Committee on Charges during the 2013-2014 academic year and the Committee remains prepared to address any issues brought during the remainder of the year.

Since the 2012-2013 Academic Year Annual Report to the Riverside Division, the Committee on Courses has approved a total of 154 new courses (108 undergraduate, 38 graduate, and 8 professional). The Committee has approved changes in 344 Courses (227 undergraduate, 105 graduate, and 12 professional); deletions of 114 courses (101 undergraduate and 13 graduate); and 8 University Extension instructors. The Committee has reviewed and approve 115 Associate-In requests.

The Committee was asked to review the proposal to create a joint Administrative Senate Committee for Summer Session. The Committee noted concern that there was only one academic member on the proposed administrative committee, who in turn does not serve on the academic committee and opined the need for academic overlap on both proposed committees. The Committee also noted that a School of Medicine (SoM) representative was not included on the academic committee and as the SoM offers courses throughout the summer the Committee recommended inclusion of a representative on the proposed committee.

The Committee was asked to review and comment on the proposed changes to Riverside Division Bylaw 8.1.1 and voted unanimously to support the proposed change.

The Committee discussed at length the policy that mandates courses instructed online that are assigned a V designation are not equivalent to courses taught on campus with same number. The Committee reviewed the current policy and consulted with the Registrar as to how the policy affects students. The Committee unanimously approved a motion to recommend the discontinuance of the V designation for online courses and to recognize courses offered online and on campus with the same course number as equivalent. As to the implementation of this recommended change the Committee proposed that departments desiring to maintain distinction between online and traditional courses be instructed to submit a course change proposal with thorough justification through CRAMS requesting a change in the course number. The Committee proposes that students will be advised of online sections through the Schedule of Classes and transcripts, which will include identification of a course as being offered online. The proposal will be submitted to the Senate Chair for campus review.

The Committee invited Representatives from the Registrar's Office (B. Dailey, Registrar, and M. Miller, Courses Specialist) and Catalog Editor (S. Whitestone) to attend meetings and wishes to express appreciation for the information and assistance they have provided.

The Committee on Educational Policy (CEP) will have had a total of ten meetings by the end of this academic year. All members of the committee and the chair also attended several meetings associated with undergraduate program reviews. Much of the committee’s work, such as the careful study of long and complex documents, is completed outside of these meetings and through e-mail. Committee members, at the request of the administration or Chair of the Division, attend additional meetings and serve on other committees.

A primary responsibility of CEP is undergraduate program reviews. During AY 2013-2014, one CEP subcommittee was established to conduct an external undergraduate program review for Business Administration, and two subcommittees were established to conduct internal reviews of Chemical and Environmental Engineering, and Computer Science and Computer Engineering utilizing the ABET accreditation report in place of an external panel. The external review for Business Administration took place on April 10-11, 2014. The Vice Chair of CEP held an action/implementation meeting with the Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education, Dean of CNAS and the Department Chair of Physics and Astronomy, and as a result of this meeting, an action plan with a timeline based on CEP’s Findings and Recommendations is being developed. Compliance reports from previous reviews for Sociology and Mechanical Engineering were accepted, closing those reviews.

The undergraduate programs in Art, Biology and Liberal Studies were previously scheduled for review during AY 2014-2015 with Bioengineering scheduled as an internal review using ABET; however, this decision was reevaluated based on a concern that most of the unreviewed programs are in CHASS, and some of these programs have large enrolments or are interdepartmental programs without the oversight of a Department Chair. After careful consideration and consultation with the CHASS Associate Dean, CEP postponed the reviews of Art and Biology and decided to review Anthropology and Philosophy along with Liberal Studies and Bioengineering during AY 2014-2015. CEP may decide to review a second program from BCOE using ABET if this year’s internal review process demonstrates that the workload associated with two internal reviews is manageable by one subcommittee.

Senate Analyst Beth Beatty and Senate Executive Director Cynthia Palmer worked with CEP to revise, streamline and clarify the Undergraduate Program Review process and to more closely align these procedures with Graduate Reviews. One feature of the new procedures is to host a retreat giving an overview of the process for the programs that will be reviewed the following year. The three programs that will undergo external reviews in AY 2014-2015 participated in this retreat on April 30, 2014. Hopefully, the new procedures will allow CEP to speed up the review cycle and increase capacity. However, even with the revisions, the rate of review does not allow CEP to meet its mandated 7-year review cycle for all 47 undergraduate programs. It will remain a challenge for future committees to identify a solution to this problem.

The following is a list of open undergraduate program reviews that CEP is working to close:

Another important function of CEP is to review and comment on all issues relevant to undergraduate education and occasionally on issues with a more general nature. When warranted, these discussions result in new regulations and policies. Topics discussed and/or acted upon by the committee in consultation with other senate committees and/or the Administration throughout the year have included:

- Reviewed and approved the proposed UCR Faculty Prestigious Honors and Awards Survey submitted to CEP for review from the Senate Chair.

- Reviewed and approved a change to the Admission by exception policy. Applicants who do not qualify for admissions using the standard criteria can become eligible with support by a faculty member, staff member or a department. These cases are evaluated by a special review committee. The proposed change added members to the committee and formalized the process by which members are appointed.

- Reviewed senate oversight of the summer session, and worked with the administration to develop a proposal that replaces the existing Summer Session Steering Committee with two new committees: an Academic Steering Committee to provide guidance on curriculum and an Administrative Steering Committee to manage resource and logistical issues. Both of these committees have Administrative and senate representation. Included in the proposal for each committee are the charge, membership and appointment process. After the proposal was approved by CEP, it was sent to the Senate Chair for further review.

- Reviewed and approved UC Riverside Washington DC Academic Internship Program’s (UCDC) proposal for course harmonization. The purpose of this proposal is to establish a coherent and consistent UCDC curriculum for students on all campuses. The committee also approved the UCDC course approval process, which mandates course review by all College Executive Committees in a process similar to what is used by the Honor’s program.

- Reviewed and submitted feedback to the Senate Chair on the proposed changes to APM 600.
• Reviewed and approved a revised proposal for RCourses from the Office of Undergraduate Education, which allows students to create and teach their own courses under faculty supervision. The cycle for course solicitation, selection, student instructor training and course delivery is a single academic year, and to accommodate this shortened timeline the normal senate review process is replaced with a single review by a Governing Board with senate representation. The Chair of the Division asked CEP to prepare a formal proposal for this program to be submitted for a full senate review.

• CEP’s membership bylaw had required an appointment from each college and school; however, Committee on Committees sometimes had difficulty fulfilling this requirement. CEP submitted a change to this bylaw dropping this requirement, yet stating that every attempt will be made to include complete representation. The proposed change was amended and approved at the Division meeting to only drop the requirement for membership from the professional schools.

• Reviewed, revised and approved the Student Classroom and Course-Related Behavior policy. The approved policy was sent to the Senate Chair for campus review.

• As mandated by the approved proposal during the program’s forth year, CEP established criterion for reviewing the Writing Across the Curriculum Program and initiated the review with the formation of a subcommittee. The review is expected to be completed this academic year.

• Reviewed the UCR Libraries’ Strategic Plan and submitted feedback to the Senate Chair. Several senate committees expressed concern about the plan, and Executive Council decided to establish a special committee tasked with developing a better plan with representation from several standing committees, including CEP. A volunteer from CEP was appointed to sit on this committee.

• Consulted with Campus Counsel on cases where students with enough credits to graduate continue to enroll in impacted classes, excluding other students who still need these courses to graduate. This problem is part of a bigger issue regarding impacted courses. CEP decided the broader issue warrants a more extensive review at a later time.

• Consulted with the Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs on a concern regarding UCR Campus Store’s textbook ordering practice that occasionally resulted in a textbook shortfall at the start of the term. In the future, Barns and Noble will handle textbook acquisitions along with general merchandise. Barns and Noble intends to dedicate a significant portion of the store to general books. It is hoped that their experience and resources will address the concerns brought up with the present operation and enhance the services provided to the UCR community.

• Reviewed and discussed a series of issues related to online courses and the Innovative Learning Technology Initiative (ILTI). Online education is a complex and quickly evolving issue. The committee was most concerned with the practice of online proctoring.

• Reviewed and discussed the Graduation Rate Task Force Report.

• Drafted a local version of SR 760, which specifically defines how unit values are determined from course workload. This was in response to a request by WASC that accredited institutions provide a reasonable and transparent formula describing how credit is awarded. The system-wide regulation provides a broad description, and each division was asked to develop its own specific policy.

- Reviewed the proposed changes to Riverside Division Bylaw 8.1.1, which prohibits administrators from serving as chairs of divisional committees or as representatives on system-wide committees. The committee approved the change with the recommendation that the term “administrative position” be defined better.

- Reviewed the five proposed changes to the Compendium, which is a document developed by the Academic Planning Council. The Compendium formalizes system-wide review processes to establish, transfer, consolidate and discontinue academic programs, schools, colleges and research units. This was a complex document, which lacked justification and detail on the role of UCOP in the review process, making our evaluation difficult. CEP supported the changes, but strongly urged including a justification in the future.

- At the request of UCEP, CEP reviewed and commented on LEAP rubrics and learning outcomes. This document, which came from the Association of American Colleges and Universities, describes general learning outcomes that would be primarily implemented in breadth classes. While the committee felt the document provided a useful framework for helping the campus think broadly about its curriculum, much of this was already incorporated in program learning outcomes, and CEP saw no compelling reason to officially adopt this as policy.

- Reviewed a proposed change to UCR’s student evaluation form regarding academic dishonesty. While some members felt academic dishonesty was an important issue, it was not clear how student opinion would be used to address the problem. CEP recommended a special committee be apportioned to examine academic dishonesty, and if this is an issue, propose ways of addressing it, which may include utilization of student evaluations.

CEP also took up a number of matters related to majors, minors and other programs. Matters of this nature that were discussed, approved and forwarded to the Division as of this date include the following:

This year, the Division was well represented on UCEP by Mark Springer, who kept CEP and the Division informed about various items and system-wide developments of interest to the committee.

Our members are to be commended for their close attention to a broad spectrum of matters concerning educational policy and undergraduate education and their genuine concern for student welfare. Finally, the members of CEP want to express their appreciation for the assistance provided by Beth Beatty, the Committee Analyst. Without her support, our work would be impossible.

The Committee on International Education has met once during the 2013-2014 academic year and is due to meet again at the end of May 2014. In addition to these meetings, the committee has discussed other matters electronically.

In the fall of 2013, the Committee reviewed the proposed changes to the Admissions by Exception policy. The Committee recommended that the Chair of the Committee be included as an ex officio member of the Special Review Committee when a case is brought forward that involves the admission of an overseas student. The Committee also updated its bylaws to reflect the change in name of the International Education Center to the International Student Resource Center.

In the spring of 2014, the Committee reviewed the proposed changes to Bylaw 8.1.1 of the Riverside Division of the Academic Senate by email and was in favor of the proposed amendments.

The Committee on Academic Computing and Information Technology and the Committee on Library and Scholarly Communication merged in October 2013. The newly formed Committee on Library, Information Technology and Scholarly Communication (LITSC) met three times during the 2013-2014 academic year and reviewed several items electronically.

The Committee oversaw the allocation and distribution of the Innovative Use of Information Technology in Teaching (IUIT) grant in coordination with the Office for the Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education and the Office of Computing and Communication. Fourteen applications were received for the grant, of which nine were approved funding. A total of $171,581.95 was disbursed.

The Committee participated in a review of the draft Library Strategic Plan and, following a request by the Division Chair, formed a subcommittee to assist in the development of an implementation plan for the Strategic Plan. The subcommittee, which includes representatives from the Graduate Council, Committee on Educational Policy, Committee on Research and the Executive Committee on the College of Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences, will provide regular reports to the Executive Council and, when pertinent, provide recommendations for Senate action.

The Committee reviewed, and provided feedback on, the proposed Master’s in Public Policy, the proposed changes to the Bylaws of the Riverside Division and the proposed revisions to the Policy on Copyright and Fair Use.

Committee Vice Chair Joseph Morse attended several meetings of the University Committee on Libraries and Scholarly Communication and provided regular reports back to the Committee on Innovative Learning Technology Initiative funding and the progress of the University Open Access Policy and Presidential Policy of Copyright and Fair Use.

The Committee on Physical Resources Planning met twice during the 2013-2014 academic year and is due to meet with the Chancellor in May 2014.

At its first meeting of the year, the Committee received updates from its administrative committee representatives and reviewed current capital projects on campus. At its second meeting of the year, the Committee received an update on the Barn Renovation Project from James Sandoval, Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs, and Andy Plumley, Assistant Vice Chancellor for Housing, Dining and Residential Services.

The Committee’s input was requested by the Division Chair on several matters during the year. The Committee reviewed the draft Library Strategic Plan and its potential impact on physical resources at the University. The Committee generally supported the improvements suggested in the strategic plan, but felt that the plan failed to address how to most effectively utilize or repurpose existing available physical resources and spaces.

The Committee also reviewed the proposed changes to the Bylaws of the Riverside Division relating to Senate members holding administrative positions not being able to Chair Senate committees. The committee supported the changes.

Committee Chair Jim Baldwin was active throughout the year representing the Committee in various discussions regarding the redevelopment of the Barn area and the selection of capital projects.

The Committee on Preparatory Education met twice during the 2013/2014 academic year.

The Committee was asked to review the proposed changes to the Admissions by Exception (“AxE”) policy. The Committee recommended the appointment of a representative from the College of Engineering as a regular member of the Special Review Committee, in parallel with the regular members representing the College of Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences and the College of Natural and Agricultural Sciences. The Committee also requested additional data on the performance of AxE students. These data were received and reviewed at a subsequent meeting. The Committee noted that half of students under the AxE policy fail to graduate and agreed to raise their concerns with the Director of Undergraduate Admissions and continue to monitor the performance of AxE in future years. The Committee likewise had concern regarding the significant increase in number of students enrolled via Special Review Committee in fall 2013 as compared to earlier years.

The Committee undertook its regular review of the Entry Level Writing Requirement report. The Committee requested and reviewed additional information relating to the background of students participating in the ELWR courses, and their subsequent graduation rates over 4 -6 years.

The Committee reviewed the BOARS report on the impact of the New Freshman Eligibility Policy and discussed the potential impact it would have on recruitment of students, particularly as UCR moves towards a holistic review process for admissions.

The primary function of the Committee on Privilege and Tenure is to consider grievances brought by members of the Academic Senate and disciplinary charges brought by the administration against members of the Academic Senate.

There were no cases received during the 2013-2014 academic year, although the committee did meet two times in person to consider matters related to privilege and tenure that do not pertain to specific cases, including reviewing and commenting on the following proposed revisions to the Bylaws or Academic Personnel Manual:

- Consideration of changes to By-law 55 – While the committee saw the potential for grievances arising from the proposed mixing of Senate and non-Senate faculty in the Academic Personnel process, the committee did not feel that this represented a major obstacle in the continued consideration of the proposal. Upon a second review of revisions to the original proposal, the committee view did not change, i.e. that the proposal should have full formal consideration.

- Proposed Revised University of California Policy on Sexual Harassment and Academic Personnel Manual (APM) Section 035, (APM-035) - The Committee opined that in general the document suffers from being a patchwork of several other sources and that it will need a careful, thoughtful re-drafting to ensure that what is said will bring about the desired behaviors with a minimum of confusion in its implementation.

- Proposal to modify the Divisional CAP Bylaw - Although there was some agreement with the rationale behind a bylaw change, the committee was, overall, opposed to it. Reasons for the opposition include the wisdom of our deliberately having a bylaw which is unlikely to be followed in practice, the CAP workload issues both for the associate professor and for CAP, and the consensus that the suggested change would not in and of itself be a correction to the perceived forms of bias, particularly those of a disciplinary nature, discussed in the proposal.

- Proposed Revisions to Divisional Bylaw 8.1.1 - The committee reviewed the proposal to amend Divisional Bylaw 8.1.1 put forward by Divisional Chair Wudka. Overall the committee supports the proposal but opines that holders of an “administrative position” should include only Department Chairs and above.

- Proposed Changes APM 190. Appendix A-2 – The committee had no objections to the revised Policy and support the revision to APM 190, Appendix A-2.

The Committee on Scholarships and Honors met twice during the 2013-2014 academic year and discussed several other matters electronically.

The committee reviewed the proposed amendments to Bylaw 8.1.1 of the Riverside Division of the Academic Senate and approved the changes unanimously.

The committee again oversaw the nomination process and selection for the Chancellor’s Awards for Excellence in Undergraduate Research and Creative Achievement. Eight valid nominations were received for the faculty awards and thirteen valid nominations were received for the student awards. The committee selected the following faculty and students as recipients of the 2013-2014 awards:

Faculty:
- Professor Allen Mills, Physics and Astronomy

The committee voted to make subtle changes to the call for nominations and nomination process; these changes to the call were saved in the accompanying documents that are distributed to the campus as large. The committee also decided that department chairs will be contacted/notified for faculty nominations starting in the 2014-2015 nomination process. Department chairs will be asked to provide a short summary of the faculty nominee's history/accomplishments in mentoring undergraduate research.

2013-2014 CHANCELLOR’S AWARDS FOR EXCELLENCE IN UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH AND CREATIVE ACHIEVEMENT

Faculty Recipients:

Professor Allen Mills, Physics and Astronomy:

In 13 years at the University of California, Riverside, Dr. Allen Mills has mentored 37 undergraduate students in laboratory research, despite having an industrial background which offered little experience in working with students. Of those 37 students, ten have co-authored journal articles with Dr. Mills (four of which appeared in peer-reviewed journals) and eight have obtained or are pursuing PhDs at some of the leading institutions in the country. Dr. Mills believes one of his main roles as an instructor is to challenge and inspire students not only to learn, but to achieve goals beyond what they themselves think they are capable of. Dr. Mills is dedicated to ensuring opportunities are available for minority students, having mentored 13 minority students.

Professor Jingsong Zhang, Chemistry:

Since 1998, Dr. Jingsong Zhang has mentored 32 undergraduate research students and has been proactive in integrating independent research opportunities into the chemistry curriculum. Since 200, Dr. Zhang has mentored 160 independent exploratory research projects and, supported by a $2m grant from the NSF, has been instrumental in establishing first-year laboratory research experiences in Freshman Learning Communities. Five of Dr. Zhang’s students have appeared with him as co-authors in peer-reviewed publications and his students have made 19 scholarly presentations of their work at conferences. Dr. Zhang’s undergraduate research students have also received 13 awards under his mentorship. Eight of Dr. Zhang’s students have been admitted to Ph.D. programs, and three students have subsequently earned Ph.D degrees in chemistry. Dr. Zhang is proactive in increasing diversity in scientific research; of the undergraduate students he has mentored, 18 are women, eight are Hispanic-American and two are African-American.
2013-2014 CHANCELLOR’S AWARDS FOR EXCELLENCE IN UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH AND CREATIVE ACHIEVEMENT

Student Recipients:

Alina Escalera, Physics and Astronomy:

Alina Escalera has established herself as one of the leading undergraduate students in the Physics and Astronomy department. Winner of the 2013 Albert Staats Award, which recognizes the best undergraduate who designs, builds, and uses prototype equipment in research, Ms. Escalera has also been the lead author of two publications and presented her work at multiple symposia. Ms. Escalera is an enthusiastic member of Dr. Allen Mills’ laboratory, encouraging her peers to pursue their own research interests and recruiting students to Dr. Mills’ lab. Ms. Escalera has been admitted to the PhD program in Physics at UCR and has been selected by NSF LSAMP Bridge to a Doctorate Program for 5 years of funding for a PhD program at UCLA, pending acceptance. Ms. Escalera’s academic accomplishments have been achieved while also caring for two Elementary School-aged children and frequently working two jobs to support them.

Michael Turcios, Dual Major in Cultural and Media Studies and French:

Michael Turcios is graduating with a double major in Media and Culture Studies and French and double minors in Ethnic Studies and Playwriting in June 2014. After completing a Senior Thesis for the University Honors Program on “The State of French National Cinema: National Identity and Historical Trauma in Post-World War II and Post-9/11,” Mr. Turcios embarked on a second senior thesis entitled “Synonymous with America: Disney, Borders, and Commodification of Cultures.” In conjunction with his second thesis, Mr. Turcios has also created a syllabus for a new course in the Department of Ethnic Studies on “Disney: Producing Race, Gender and Sexualities.” As an undergraduate student, Mr. Turcios has presented his research at seven academic conferences, serves as Student Editorial Board Member on UCR’s Undergraduate Research Journal and has translated from Spanish into English a peer-review journal article entitled “Sister, Daughter, Partner, Tourist… Negotiated Position in Intimate and Ethnographic Articulations.” He has earned a GPA of 3.8 even while working over 30 hours a week as an Assistant Resident Director for Housing, Dining, and Residential Services and as a Projectionist/Student Assistant for Department of Comparative Literature and Foreign Languages. Mr. Turcios has gained admission to the University Of Southern California Tisch School Of Cinema.

The Undergraduate Admissions Committee (UAC) is scheduled to meet 11 times this academic year.

The Riverside Division of the Undergraduate Admissions Committee was represented on the Systemwide Board of Admissions and Relations with Schools (BOARS) by Katie DeFea, Chair of the Undergraduate Admissions Committee. BOARS is scheduled to hold 10 day long meetings during the 2013-2014 academic year. Chair DeFea updated the Committee members at each meeting as to the issues being discussed at the statewide level. In addition, Chair DeFea represented the UAC on Executive Council and as a member of the Enrollment Management Council.

Actions undertaken by the Committee were the following:

- The Committee reviewed the proposed change to Riverside Division Bylaw 8.1.1 and voted unanimously to support the proposed change.

- The Committee reviewed the proposed changes to departmental names in BCoE and CHASS and voted unanimously to support the proposals.

- The Committee reviewed feedback from Executive Council in regards to the Committee’s proposed changes to the Admissions by Exception (AxE) Guidelines to the Special Review Committee (SRC) that were submitted last academic year. The Committee voted unanimously to accept Executive Council’s recommendations and revised the guidelines so that a representative from BCoE was included as a Senate Faculty Member and that a representative from the Committee on International Education was included as an ex-officio member when appropriate.

- The Committee reviewed the proposed changes to the Education Minor’s admission requirements and voted unanimously to approve the changes.

- The Committee submitted a report to BOARS documenting that UCR had met the compare favorably guidelines with regards to non-resident students.

- The Committee examined the recruitment process at UCR and received a presentation from the Director of Admissions that provided a high level overview of the recruitment process at UCR and the different campus stakeholder’s roles in the process. The Committee also received a presentation from the Associate Vice Chancellor of Strategic Communications on Public Relations role in the recruitment process.
• The Committee reviewed data that documented the percentage of students who take remedial math and English during their freshmen year at UCR and examined the possibility of implementing a SAT verbal floor to increase the academic profile of UCR. The Committee also examined data that documented how the implementation of a SAT floor would affect diversity.

• Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education Steve Brint attended a meeting of the Committee to discuss the data from the Graduation Rate Taskforce Committee Report that included graduate rates and academic performance by high school.

• The Committee discussed the future of the referral pool and admissions guarantee and the issue discussed at BOARS of the possibility of changing the “9 by 9” process meant to identify the top 9% of students statewide and top 9% of students in each high school as UC Merced is unable to take all the applicants from the cohort of students guaranteed admissions. The Committee supported the push for a “7 by 7” process that was discussed at BOARS.

• The Director of Admissions gave a presentation to the Committee on the process of holistic review. The Committee discussed the possibility of implementing holistic review at UCR with a model that will still use a comprehensive review structure to evaluate the top tier of applicants. Applicants who do not meet the requirements in the comprehensive review would be evaluated through holistic review. The Chair met with the College Associate Deans to discuss the methodology of the proposed holistic review process at UCR. The Committee is currently working to draft methodology and develop a pilot holistic review program.

COMMITTEE ON DISTINGUISHED CAMPUS SERVICE

NOMINATION FOR THE 2013-2014 DISTINGUISHED CAMPUS SERVICE AWARD

DISTINGUISHED PROFESSOR OF THE GRADUATE DIVISION HARRY GREEN

The Committee is pleased to nominate Distinguished Professor of the Graduate Division Harry Green from the Department of Earth Sciences as a recipient of the Distinguished Campus Service Award for the academic year 2013-2014. Since he arrived at the University in 1992, Professor Green has been an active member and enthusiastic champion of the Academic Senate and the campus community. He has served the campus with distinction in several senior administrative positions, including as Vice Chancellor for Research between 1995 and 2000; however in selecting Professor Green for this award, the committee focused on his continued dedication to campus service both before, and after, this role. Between leaving his position as Vice Chancellor and retiring from full-time teaching in 2010, Professor Green served on numerous Academic Senate, departmental and joint Senate and administrative committees, including serving as Chair of the Committee on Educational Policy (2003-2005) and the Faculty Research Lecturer Committee (2004-2005), and was the founding Chair of the Committee of Distinguished Campus Service (2005-2007). He has also served as a member on the Committee on Academic Personnel (2006-2010) and the Executive Vice Chancellor/Provost Search Advisory Committee (2004). As an active member of the Department of Earth Sciences, Professor Green served as Vice Chair of the Department and twice served as Acting Chair, in addition to participating in departmental search, budget and award committees. Since retiring in 2010 – a time when many faculty reduce campus service to concentrate on research – Professor Green has continued to serve the University through involvement on several systemwide committees, including as Vice Chair and then Chair of University Committee on Academic Personnel (UCAP) and as a member of the Academic Council and Academic Planning Council.
COMMITTEE ON DISTINGUISHED CAMPUS SERVICE

NOMINATION FOR THE 2013-2014 DISTINGUISHED CAMPUS SERVICE AWARD

PROFESSOR UMAR MOHIDEEN

The committee is pleased to nominate Professor Umar Mohideen from the Department of Physics and Astronomy as a recipient of the Distinguished Campus Service Award for the academic year 2013-2014. Professor Mohideen has performed significant service to the campus, most notably in his roles as graduate advisor for the Department of Physics and Astronomy and as a member of the Academic Senate’s Committee on Planning and Budget. Professor Mohideen is the current Chair of the Department of Physics and Astronomy, having previously served as Vice Chair and on numerous policy, planning, program, teaching, colloquium, and recruitment committees. As Graduate Advisor for admissions between 2002 and 2004, Professor Mohideen increased the number of graduate students in the Department from 42 to 74 and in his subsequent term as Graduate Advisor for enrolled students, improved the retention rate from less than 50% to nearly 80%. As lead evaluator for enrolled students (2004-2008) and non-Chinese international applications (2008-present), he has evaluated up to half of all enrolled students and two-thirds of applications on an annual basis. At a Senate level, Professor Mohideen served on the Committee on Planning and Budget during the global recession and a time of major budget cuts. Through a detailed analysis of the whole campus budget, the Committee were able to identify the exact dollar amount in budget cuts that could be sustained without damaging the teaching mission of CHASS, CNAS and BCOE, limiting the eventual cuts. As Chair of the Committee in 2011-2012, Professor Mohideen led a further analysis of the whole campus budget and the Office of the President reimbursements for Organized Research Units, including the Agricultural Experimentation Station and the Cooperative Extension, discovering an $8m shortfall. He forcefully brought this to the attention of the Senate, Dean, EVC and the Chancellor, and UCR will likely be able to continue obtain this additional $8m in future years.
Since joining the University of California, Riverside in 1995, Dr. Kimberly Hammond has established herself as one of the Department of Biology’s leading educators. Passionate, and with an “unbridled enthusiasm for the subject matter,” Dr. Hammond is as equally adept teaching broad lower division classes to interdisciplinary students as she is working with life sciences majors and pre-meds. Dr. Hammond is always willing to go above and beyond her basic teaching obligations, hosting workshops and additional office hours during her off hours to help students understand complex materials. Dr. Hammond is committed to creating a holistic and experiential learning environment for her students, regularly leading weekend field trips to local nature reserves where she shares her knowledge and love of the natural world with students before cooking for them in the evening. Away from the classroom, Dr. Hammond has served as Director of the US Department of Education’s GAANN award, supporting graduate students in dissertation research and encouraging outreach into the regional K-12 student community. At UCR she has also served as a graduate advisor and as Director of the Evolution, Ecology and Organismal Biology doctoral program. An active member of the local education community, Dr. Hammond is involved in education research and specifically how the mathematics and science performance of primary grade students in Riverside County might improve by augmenting teacher professional development with modern pedagogies. In the words of one of her colleagues, “she is unrelenting in her desire to do better – a true hallmark of a distinguished teacher.”
Each year the Graduate Council and Graduate Division present the Doctoral Dissertation Advisor/Mentor Award to one or two UCR faculty members who have made outstanding contributions to the training of advanced graduate students. It is my pleasure to announce that this year’s winner is Ashok Mulchandani.

Dr. Ashok Mulchandani is the W. Ruel Johnson Professor in Environmental Engineering in the Department of Chemical and Environmental Engineering. He obtained his B. Tech. from Laxminarayan Institute of Technology, Nagpur in 1976, M. Tech. from Indian Institute of Technology, Powai, in 1978, and Ph.D. from McGill University, Montreal, in 1985. He is a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and of the American Institute for Medical and Biological Engineering. He is editor-in-chief of Applied Biochemistry and Biotechnology and a member of the editorial boards of several journals. Additional honors include the Research Initiation Award from the National Science Foundation and Faculty Participation Award from the U.S. Department of Energy. Dr. Mulchandani’s research focuses on the area of bionanotechnology, creating sensors (analytical devices) that use biological and/or chemical sensing elements to analyze chemical or biological molecules of interest. Dr. Mulchandani has advised 49 graduate students (including 39 Ph.D. students), more than 38 postdocs and 40 undergraduate researchers. His students have uniformly praised him for his outstanding contributions to their graduate education and training, a "Highly knowledgeable adviser! Life-time mentor! Wonderful friend!"
From its inception well over half a century ago, the Faculty Research Lecturer Award has been the highest honor that the Academic Senate bestows. The Committee on the Faculty Research Lecturer is delighted to place in nomination, Howard S. Friedman, Distinguished Professor of Psychology for this honor for the year 2014-2015.

Our selection of Professor Friedman, after consideration of very worthy nominations from across a wide spectrum of academic disciplines and all three Colleges, is based on the fact that not only is he a leader in the application of scientific methods in Psychology to crucial human issues but that he has addressed through this approach important problems of human health and well-being and communicated the results in an accessible form to policy makers and to the general public.

To quote from the nomination letter, "Professor Friedman is an internationally recognized leader in two major areas of research- nonverbal communication and health psychology - in which he has a total of over 150 publications." Professor Friedman's work in the former would be sufficient to establish him as a leader in an important field of psychology. But he has gone on to examine the relation between psychology and health. His work has established this field as a major academic and scientific activity. His work on these topics has been rigorously scientific. He took and poured over the archives of the Terman study initiated at Stanford University in the 1930's and examined the longevity and cause of death of the project's participants in relation to various psychological factors in their lives. His book, The Longevity Project: Surprising Discoveries for health and Long life from the Landmark Eight-decade Study, has itself become a landmark with important prescriptions for public policy.

To quote from another letter, "Dr. Friedman is widely and appropriately credited with a sustained rate of high quality theoretical and empirical research that continues to both lead and underpin a number of areas of psychological sciences. He first became known as a central definer of the field of non-verbal expressiveness. Later he moved on to make unique and major contributions to the field of health psychology. More recently, he has received not only academic recognition but also a great deal of public interest in his ground-breaking research on the predictors of longevity."

Professor Friedman has been elected to several professional societies including the American Association for the Advancement of Science and has been given the Outstanding Contribution to Health Psychology award and the James Mc-Keen Cattell Fellow award from the Association for Psychological Science. He has brought to UCR several major research grants including three grants from the National Institute on Aging over a million dollars each.

For his enormous productivity in the application of scientific methods to important problems in psychology, including those that immediately affect policies on health and wellbeing, the Senate Committee on Faculty Research Lecturer unanimously and enthusiastically nominate Distinguished Professor Howard Friedman as the Faculty Research Lecturer for 2014-2015.

R6.12.1 Changes in a curriculum or prerequisite requirements both for courses and majors may not be implemented until the quarter following the publication of the change in the General Catalog unless an exception is approved at the time the change in curriculum or prerequisite requirements is adopted.

Justification:

A timetable for the full implementation of changes in graduation requirements (general university requirements, college breadth requirements, and major requirements) is currently specified in R6.12. However, changes to prerequisites for courses, majors, or any curricular change not involving graduation requirements, are not covered by existing legislation. Proposed R6.12.1 establishes a default implementation date for such changes. Exceptions to this default may be granted presuming an alternative is specified and approved as part of the change to the prerequisite requirement.

According to current regulations, a proposal for changes to prerequisites for courses, majors, or any curricular change not involving graduation requirements could be implemented before students had any time to make adjustments to prepare for the change. More importantly, this stepped up implementation could be inadvertent; it might be the result of an oversight, involving the failure to specify the implementation timetable in writing. This may create a serious and unintended hardship for the students affected.

CAMPUS PROCEDURE FOR NAME CHANGE FOR AN ACADEMIC DEPARTMENT

The October 30, 1972 statement from Vice President C. O. McCorkle, Jr. notes that Chancellors are authorized to establish procedures for the initiation of name changes of academic departments. The procedures followed on the Riverside campus are:

1. The department writes a proposal addressed to the dean of the college/school.

2. The dean sends the proposal to the college/school executive committee for review and recommendation.

3. The dean himself/herself makes a recommendation addresses to the Executive Vice Chancellor.

4. The three above items shall be forwarded to the Executive Vice Chancellor.

5. The Executive Vice Chancellor will refer the request to the Academic Senate Division Chair who will refer the request to the committees he/she believes appropriate (generally Academic Personnel, Educational Policy, Planning and Budget, and Graduate Council). The Senate Advisory Committee will review the recommendations and forward the item to the Division for action.

6. When the Executive Vice Chancellor receives a positive Academic Senate response from the Division, he/she will forward the recommendation for the name change to the Office of the President.

Re: Department Name Change Proposals

At its January 29th meeting, the Committee on Academic Personnel reviewed the proposals for departmental name changes and expressed the following concerns:

1) Department of Electrical Engineering to the Department of Electrical & Computer Engineering
   • CAP had various concerns about department overlap and independence of programs that it hopes were dealt with in College Executive Committees. No CAP issues seem specifically at issue here.

2) Department of Theatre to the Department of Theatre, Film and Visual Production
   • The CHASS Executive Committee consultation with the affected departments seems unbalanced. The proposal includes a written response from the Theatre department, but there is no response from Media and Cultural Studies, Art, nor Creative Writing

3) Department of Women’s Studies to the Department of Gender and Sexualities Studies
   • CAP approves of the proposed change and has no further recommendations (+10-0-0).

RE: Campus Review of Departmental Name Change Proposals

Because the date to respond to three departmental name change proposals fell between regular monthly meetings of the full Graduate Council, the Courses and Programs subcommittee of the Council, with Chair Bell also in attendance, considered the proposals at their regularly scheduled meeting of February 13, 2014. All other members of the Graduate Council were invited to the meeting, and also were offered the opportunity to comment via email. Two members responding by email had no objections to the proposals. Among the eight Graduate Council members attending the February 13 meeting, discussion of the proposed changes led us to articulate some concerns regarding two of the three proposals, namely those originating from the faculty in Electrical Engineering and in Theater. As we are uncertain as to our role in the decision-making process, we see the expression of these concerns as advisory and did not take a formal vote "yay or nay" on the proposals. Here are our concerns:

In the case of the Electrical Engineering and Theater name change proposals, we are concerned that there may be faculty in other departments potentially impacted by the name changes whose voices we cannot find in the written materials. We are amply clear on the deans' positions and the originating faculty's investigations and justifications, and also on the involvement of the Executive Committees of the two colleges. But we do not know directly from the written materials exactly how, or even if, other potentially affected faculty were consulted. In the case of Electrical Engineering, it would be the faculty of the Department of Computer Science and Engineering and in the case of Theater, it would be the faculty (primarily) of the Department of Media and Cultural Studies, whose views may need more direct articulation. Why does this matter to Graduate Council? As a committee, we are concerned about the following two issues that are part of our purview:

1) Graduate student recruitment may be impacted adversely for faculty in other departments and programs by the name changes; and
2) Graduate curricula will have to be reshaped to reflect these changes, as well as the strategies of departments regarding new faculty recruitments.

What would be the remedy for our concerns? We concluded that it would be very helpful to read written statements compiled directly by potentially affected faculty in other departments (as noted above). Such additions would enable the Academic Senate to reflect more fully and fairly to all potentially affected faculty on the impact of the suggested name changes.

RE:  Name change for the Department of Electrical Engineering (EE) to the Department of Electrical & Computer Engineering (ECE)

I am pleased to submit the attached letter from the faculty of the Department of Electrical Engineering (EE) to change its name to the “Department of Electrical & Computer Engineering” (ECE). The proposed name change was unanimously approved by the EE department on May 1, 2013. It was then discussed by the BCOE Executive Committee on May 22, 2013, which referred it to an ad-hoc committee to investigate national trends and provide further comments for the impact of the name change. Subsequently the Executive Committee approved the proposal on its meeting on December 16, 2013.

I am fully supportive of the name change as well since it better defines the current programs and vision of the department. It also provides better exposure and marketing for the Computer Engineering program (CEN) which is offered jointly by EE and the Computer Science & Engineering (CSE) departments. The name change will also help CEN to attract more students to both EE and CSE departments. Additionally, the name change will enable incorporation of more digital signals and systems related courses into the CEN curriculum as EE hires additional faculty with expertise in computer engineering. Finally, I believe the name change will bring more synergistic and collaborative research and educational programs between both EE and CSE departments.

Therefore, I request the campus approval to formally change the name of the Department of Electrical Engineering to the Department of Electrical & Computer Engineering. I have attached the campus procedure for name change for an academic department.

Please let me know if you need any additional information.

Subject: Departmental name change

Reza Abbaschian, Dean
Bourns College of Engineering

Dear Reza:

This letter is a request by the faculty of the UCR Department of Electrical Engineering to change its name to the “Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering” (ECE). The issue was discussed at the EE faculty meeting on May 1, 2013 and unanimously supported by the sixteen attending faculty.

The Computer Engineering (CEN) program started at UCR in 2000 as a joint program between the Department of Electrical Engineering (EE) and the Department of Computer Science. At approximately the same time, the Department of Computer Science changed its name to the Department of Computer Science and Engineering (CSE).

Throughout the history of the CEN program, it has been offered and administered jointly by the CSE and EE departments. The EE department is proud of its participation in the CEN program and plans to continue its role, in collaboration with CSE. As such, it is appropriate to recognize both the EE and CEN programs in the title, and hence the request by EE to be renamed as the “Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering.”

As the department hires faculty to support the CEN program, such as our recent hire, Dr. Qi Zhu, they will be conducting research and granting PhDs in their areas of Computer Engineering. It would be appropriate and beneficial for faculty recruitment, proposals, and for the graduate students to be the Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering.

A quick web search will demonstrate that the ECE title is used at many high quality schools; therefore, there are certainly numerous precedents for the ECE title.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if there are any questions.

Sincerely,

Jay A. Farrell, Professor and Department Chair

BCOE AD-HOC COMMITTEE, PROPOSED NAME CHANGE FROM DEPT. OF ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING TO DEPT. OF ELECTRICAL AND COMPUTER ENGINEERING

November 20, 2013

Committee Members

- Stefano Lonardi (representing the Department of Computer Science and Eng.)
- Frank Vahid (representing the Computer Engineering program)
- Amit K. Roy Chowdhury (representing the Department of Electrical Engineering)

This ad-hoc committee was charged with the task of providing information to the Executive Committee of BCOE regarding the proposed name change from “Department of Electrical Engineering” (EE) to “Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering” (ECE).

The committee was asked to investigate issues related to the name change, such as enhancing the EE program, and improving the collaboration/synergy among the departments within BCOE, while maintaining the existing collegiality between departments.

The committee discussed the implication of the name change for the shared Computer Engineering (CEN) program.

MISC. STATs:

- Out of 99 top universities (mix of private, public and all UCs), the name ECE is used 58% of the time, compared to 20% for EE. CSE is used 18% of the time compared to 60% for CS
- The combination ECE + CSE occurs in 7%, EE + CSE in 9%, ECE + CS in 45%

POSSIBLE PROS:

- Department vision/focus. The new name may more clearly define and communicate the departmental vision and existing strengths.
- CEN shared program. If the vision for the CEN program is for it to be supported equally strongly by both CSE and EE, then the new name might better reflect and communicate that vision. It would also double the exposure of the CEN program through the names of both the departments.
- Student/faculty recruitment. The new name might facilitate the recruitment of high-quality CEN faculty/students by the EE department, which in turn could improve the ranking of both the CEN program and EE department (it was however, noted that past EE recruitment does not seem to reflect internal strong thrust/emphasis on CEN).
POSSIBLE CONS:

- Blurring EE/CS distinction. The new name could lead EE to hire faculty in fields like software engineering, databases, etc. as commonly occurs in other schools, which can lead to duplicate courses, fighting, or hiring of sub-standard CS faculty. Having a closer coordination in hiring CE people in either department could mitigate this risk – and even without the name change, the risk remains.
- CEN shared program. The college has created and maintained an excellent "shared" approach to CEN since the mid 1990s, serving as a model for other schools, without redundancy, excessive fighting, calls for a separate department, etc. A name change could lead to unanticipated consequences that might jeopardize the shared model approach.

Conclusions and recommendations

- The committee could not find reasons why departments in other schools changed their name from EE to ECE.
- The committee reinforces the importance that EE should continue to hire “EE-rooted” CEN faculty, while CSE should continue to hire “CS-rooted” CEN faculty.
- Irrespective of what happens with the name change, the committee felt that there should be better coordination between the two departments in hiring faculty in research areas of overlap (for instance, CEN).
- A suggestion was made that an alternative name could be to include Materials (e.g., Electrical, Computer and Materials Engineering) since the EE department has a strong materials program.
- The discussion on the name change led to a related discussion on the current CEN program. Some in the committee felt that while IEEE/ACM guidelines [1] for CEN are largely followed at UCR, when comparing our CEN program to those of peer institutions, the CEN program should consider reincorporating digital signals and systems.

RE: Review of Name Change of the Department of Electrical Engineering

In a memo dated May 2, 2013, the faculty of the Department of Electrical Engineering requested the College, through the Dean, to consider changing the name of the “Department of Electrical Engineering” to the “Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering”. The request was presented to the BCOE Executive Committee during its May 22, 2013 meeting. In response to the recommendation of the Committee, the Dean, in consultation with the relevant departments, appointed an ad-hoc committee, consisting of faculty members from the departments of Computer Engineering, Electrical Engineering and Computer Science and Engineering, to examine the justification for the request, and write a summary report.

The report was discussed at the meeting of the BCOE Executive Committee on December 16, 2013, and approval of the request for the name change was voted on by the members of the Committee. The results from the anonymous balloting were 8 “yes” votes and 3 “no” votes.

RE: Theatre Name Change Request

I support the proposed name change of the Department of Theatre to the Department of Theatre, Film and Visual Production. This name change better reflects the curricular reach of the department, as well as the research and creative activity profile of the faculty. The department has long emphasized the commonalities among stage and “screen” production, training students in acting, directing, writing and production design across these mediums, which are traditionally divided by disciplinary lines within universities. I believe this is a forward-looking approach; changing the department’s name will benefit the department and CHASS.

RE: Name Change for Department

The faculty of the Department of Theater has voted unanimously (9-Yes, 0-No) to change the department's name from the Department of Theater to the Department of Theater, Film & Digital Production. The reason for the proposed name change is to reflect the evolution of the department from one primarily focused on the stage to one that is training students and creating work in other modes of dramatic performance including Film, Television and more recent new media. The name change will allow the department to emphasize its existing strengths while encompassing the direction in which we intend to grow.

Although Theater education, training and production remains the foundation of the department, in the last 5-7 years our faculty has expanded to include experts in writing for television - Stu Krieger; screenwriting - Robin Russin, Charles Evered; as well as in film directing and editing - Root Park. As a result, a significant amount of the production (publishing) of the department is in these areas. This additional expertise has also manifested itself on campus through the increased number of screenwriting, production and writing for television classes being offered – and immediately filled - as well as the department’s production of a new film each year written by a student, directed by a faculty member, and completed by spring quarter annually.

Additionally, we believe that the new name Department of Theater, Film & Digital Production will offer truth in advertising to prospective students. In recent years we have experienced an influx of students from other departments who enter the university believing that they would have the opportunity to “produce” work in their desired areas of media, only to discover that in order to fulfill their vision they must come to the Theater Department. This increased interest in what we provide as a department has been both a boon and a burden. On the one hand it has made it obvious by the number of interested students that we are moving in the right direction when it comes to the future of our department. On the other, it has placed increased demands on our faculty members to expand class sizes in order to accommodate the demand and still provide space for our “theater” majors.
Non-theater students are already filling our classes, but are reluctant to declare themselves as theater majors because their interests lie in writing, directing, and producing movies, television or content for the internet, all of which they learning in our department. A name change will simply reflect what is already taking place, which is work in Theater, Film and Digital Production.

Currently we offer the following classes reflective of the proposed Name change:

THEA 066 – Screenwriting: How Movies Work
THEA 101 – Introduction to Design for Theatre, Film & Television
THEA102 – Production Techniques for Theatre, Film & Television
THEA132 – Lighting Design for Theatre, Film & Television

Best,
Stu
DEPARTMENT NAME CHANGE RESPONSE LETTER:

1) Has there been a review of Theatre's possible curricular overlap with other departments? We are concerned that courses in screenwriting, for example, are offered by your department, Media and Cultural Studies, and Creative Writing. Are there any "known issues" with this overlap?

OUR RESPONSE:

There is no overlap. Our screen and television writing courses focus on narrative storytelling in the cinematic arts. Writing courses in MCS focus on theory or documentary films but not on fiction. Our classes have not been cross-listed with MCS for the past six or seven years for this reason. Our department has a more complete equipment package conducive to providing our students with the opportunities to make and edit films from multiple genres across the filmmaking spectrum. While MCS has a faculty of 10, two focus on documentary production, one works in video gaming production and theory and the remaining seven focus on theoretical/critical analysis of film and media internationally.

2) Has Theatre initiated a conversation with MCS about the two departments' mutual interest in educating students in film and video production? We want to ensure that there is transparency and open communication between the two departments as both departments seek to grow in film and digital production.

OUR RESPONSE:

There have been informal talks over the years but nothing has emerged from those talks largely because we traditionally have been, and continue to be, a production based department while MCS's main focus is on critical studies and theory.

3) Does the incorporation of "Film & Digital Production" in the department reflect a national trend in theater programs? We think this is a bold an exciting move and are wondering if it reflects larger changes in the field of theatre studies, if it reflects the specific curricular structure in CHASS, or both?

OUR RESPONSE:

Both. UCLA has the "School of Theater, Film and Television" as does the University of Notre Dame "Film, Television and Theatre," as does York University in Canada, one of the leading programs there ("Theatre, Film and Television"). As forms of media continue to merge and blend and projects that begin on stage get converted to film ("August: Osage County," "Frost/Nixon," "Closer") and film projects arrive on stage ("Mary Poppins," "Big Fish," "Spiderman," ) it is essential for our students to understand both the similarities and the differences between various forms of narrative storytelling.

As part of the CHASS curricular structure, the name change is designed to reflect the courses we are already teaching and have been teaching for the past several years. Following is a list of current classes, approved by CAP and already being taught, that fall under this banner:

THEA 066 – Screenwriting: How Movies Work
THEA 101 – Introduction to Design for Theatre, Film & Television
THEA102 – Production Techniques for Theatre, Film & Television

THEA 133 – Design for Theatre, Film & Television
THEA138 – Art Direction for Film & Television
THEA141 – Drafting and Rendering for Theatre, Film & Television
THEA 144 – Makeup for Theatre, Film & Television
THEA 145 – Computer-Aided Design for Theatre, Film & Television
THEA 155 – Introduction to Digital Film Production
THEA 156A – Digital Film Production

We sincerely hope this helps to clarify and alleviate your concerns.

RE: Women’s Studies Name Change Request

I support the proposed name change of the Department of Women’s Studies to the Department of Gender and Sexualities Studies. The new name better reflects both national trends in the evolution of the discipline of Women’s Studies into a more inclusive field dedicated to the interdisciplinary study of gender and sexuality.

I also agree with the department’s justification that this is particularly important given our faculty’s transnational research profile, across which the category of “woman” is a contested object of study. The new name reflects the future of the discipline in the 21st century.

Re: Department Name Change

The Women’s Studies Department Faculty voted unanimously on March 13, 2013 in favor of changing the name of the department to Gender and Sexualities Studies (GSS). With this memo, we request that this proposed name change and its rationale be forwarded to the Executive Committee for review and recommendation and that this memo, the Executive Committee’s recommendation, and the Dean’s recommendation, be sent forward to the Executive Vice Chancellor.

The reasons for this request to change the name of the department are several. First, we feel that the new designation more accurately describes our current course offerings, the curricula we require of our majors and minors, and what we contribute campus-wide. Our introductory course, taken by over a thousand students per year, is, in fact, called “Introduction to Gender and Sexuality. The new name also addresses more inclusively the student constituencies who may be interested in our courses, our major, and our minor. While the roots of the department lie in the activism of the feminist movement of the late twentieth-century, our interdisciplinary approaches in such areas as human rights, science and technology, media studies, the Middle East, Southeast Asia, queer studies, border theory and culture, and epistemology do not treat “women” as a stable, universal category. The same must be said of the research of the department’s faculty, which is also highly interdisciplinary and diverse. Our innovative scholarly projects make visible the interconnections among different levels and layers of social, economic, political, visual, historiographical, ideological, literary etc. organization. In doing so, we use gender and sexuality as analytical categories.

Further, at the urging of Associate Dean Peter Graham, we are working concertedly on the creation of a Bachelor of Science degree, which will potentially relieve some of the pressure on impacted social science departments in CHASS. Working in collaboration with the School of Public Policy and with CNAS, we are shaping the new B.S. to address the interrelated challenges of sustainability and health care. The proposed new name of the department contributes to this initiative.

Not least, the department is committed to enhancing its participation in graduate education, revising our Ph.D. Program proposal and participating in the creation of Designated Emphases in Queer Studies and Gender Studies. In our original Ph.D. Program proposal, the name of the program was to be Genders and Sexualities Studies. This proved unwieldy, and we plan to change it to Gender and Sexuality Studies. We would like to bring the name of the department and the name of the graduate program in line with each other.

I attach a list of the names of departments and programs at other UCs, in California, and across the nation. There has been an enormous amount of debate over how best to identify this rapidly evolving interdisciplinary field. All of the departments in the UC system except for UCI have moved toward a more inclusive formulation that usually includes the term “gender” and often includes the methodological indication “feminist”. The two programs, one at UC Davis and one at UCSD, also both include “gender”.

UC Riverside has been a leader in the UC system and nationally in Queer or Sexuality Studies, and we feel that our own department’s particular strengths in that area should also be signaled in the name of the department. Ohio State University, Bowling Green State University, Barnard College, and Grinnell College are among those institutions that already include Sexuality in the names of their departments. There does not appear to be any clear differentiation between the ways in which departments as compared to programs are named.

The problematics of terminology are a sign of the vibrancy of the field world-wide. As scholars and theorists have brought different histories, cultures, languages, and political economies into relation with one another, what has emerged is the rich resource that differences of epistemology, experience, and standpoint offer to the field. Increasingly the term “women’s studies” is being retired in recognition that one cannot study women in isolation, that “woman” itself does not signify a homogeneous category, and that students who characterize themselves very differently in relation to the categories of gender and sexuality are interested in the field.

In order to identify ourselves as accurately and as inclusively as possible, in order to bring our profile into line with the field nationally and internationally, and in order to make all UCR students feel welcome in our courses, therefore, we feel that this name change is an important step.

Admission by Exception (AxE) is an offer of admission reserved for applicants who meet the minimum academic requirements and
1. Have a special talent, or
2. Have attained academic achievement despite major disadvantages compared to other students.

Effective Fall 2006, the Office of Undergraduate Admissions may admit the number of AxE applicants required to yield 6% of total freshman enrollment and 6% of total transfer enrollment.

Up to 1% of the AxE enrollments may be reserved for Special Talent applicants and the remaining 5% may be reserved for Disadvantaged applicants.

The following criteria have been developed and approved by the Undergraduate Admissions Committee of the UC Riverside Academic Senate.

I. Minimum Academic Requirements

Applicants who are ineligible will meet the following minimum academic criteria in order to be considered for AxE.

Freshman Applicant
1. GPA – 3.00 minimum in a-g subjects.
2. SAT Reasoning - 420 minimum score on the Math component and a 420 minimum score on either of the two remaining components (Critical Reading and Writing).
3. ACT composite score of 17 (sum of SAT Critical Reading and Math = 830) and a minimum ACT English/Writing score of 17 (SAT Writing = 420).
   • Applicants who are unable to meet the above exam requirement prior to high school graduation because either, 1) the exams are not offered in their home country and/or 2) they will participate in the UCR Extension Intensive English program prior to taking the exams, may be considered for admission by completing the exams post high school graduation.
4. a-g Course Omissions - 3 courses or less (no Math or English omissions/deficiencies are allowed).
5. Transferrable coursework taken after the summer following high school graduation – up to 30 units of transferrable coursework can be considered for freshman admission for international students in the Admission Preparation Program and other circumstances as warranted.
6. Gap Year – Freshman applicants with a gap in their educational record of up to two years may be considered for freshman admission.

Transfer Applicant
1. GPA - 2.00 minimum allowed in transferable courses.
2. Units - A minimum of 24 transferable quarter units.
3. Subject Requirements – At least one transferable English Composition course, one transferable math course (has intermediate algebra as a prerequisite or may use intermediate algebra), and one appropriate third course from the required 7-course pattern.

All applicants who meet the above academic criteria may compete equally for AxE consideration. Declining academic performance is a factor used to defer applicants even though they may meet the criteria described above. Exceptions to the above criteria are rare. Applicants who do not meet these criteria must demonstrate acceptable alternative academic achievement (see below: IV. Special Committee Review).

II. Definitions of Applicants to be Considered for AxE

1. Special Talent Applicants (up to 1%) – Applicants satisfying the above-stated minimum academic requirements may be considered for AxE if one or more of the following factors have been demonstrated at an exceptional level:
   - outstanding achievement in a specific subject area;
   - self-motivation and initiative;
   - leadership;
   - public or community service;
   - athletics;
   - completion of significant special projects;
   - special endorsement of academic promise from their school;
   - demonstration of academic promise by achievement in specific areas of study; and/or
   - marked improvement in academic performance as demonstrated by academic grade point average and/or enrollment in accelerated, challenging course work (e.g., honors, Advanced Placement, International Baccalaureate, and transferable college courses).

There is no specific breakdown of the 1% according to these factors. In particular, there is no assumption that there must be a balance of students admitted from the spectrum of factors. Thus, one or just a few factors may account for the majority of special talent admissions. At the same time, however, no one special talent factor should prevent other factors from being fully considered and accommodated.

2. Disadvantaged Applicants (up to 5%) - Students satisfying the above-stated minimum academic requirements may be considered for AxE if they have demonstrated academic achievement in the presence of major disadvantages compared to typical student applicants. Disadvantages may include geographical, physical, psychological, financial, or personal and may include, but are not limited to:
   - Low Income: Family income and household size will be used to determine if an applicant is financially disadvantaged. The family income cutoff will be directly linked to the size of the family. A scale is used to assign variable points. The actual income cutoffs would be based upon annually published federal standards. The University of California Office of the President will provide the Undergraduate Admissions office applicable standards on an annual basis.
• First-Generation College Attendee: Parents of applicant have not attended college or have just recently begun attending college.

• Disability (Learning, Physical, and/or Psychological): Applicant will require further review by Student Special Services for recommendation.

• English as a Second Language: Applicant’s native language is other than English.

• Veteran: Applicant is veteran of U.S. military.

• Re-entry: Applicant is 24 years of age or older by term of entry and has been out of school for two years or more.

• Unusual Life Circumstances/Personal Hardship Indicators: Applicant is or has one or more of the following: ward of the court; recent or chronic illness/injury; lives in foster home; comes from single parent family; single parent; runaway; death in the immediate family (parent, guardian, sibling); homeless; emancipated minor; incarcerated parent; a current/former inmate of a correctional facility; parolee; and/or a victim of physical/sexual abuse.

• Location of Residence and/or Limited Educational Opportunity Indicators: Applicant lives in or around one or more of the following: inner city dwelling/school or rural dwelling/school community with a high crime rate, high unemployment rate, and/or low education level.

• Applicant Attends High School Where the Following Occurs: Applicant is bussed to school (therefore, cannot participate in extra curricular/enriching activities); high school does not offer AP/Honors curriculum or high school does not send many applicants to UC; and/or high school has low college-going rate, low high school graduation rate, and low high school test scores (mean average less than 500 on SAT I Math and Verbal).

• Job: Applicant is working during school year to supplement family income, save for college, or fulfill other basic needs.

• Recent Immigrant Status: Applicant has moved within last six years from non-English speaking country.

• Applicant from Another Country: Applicant attended high school or higher level education in another country and is unable to meet traditional UC admission requirements.

The mere presence of one or more of the above factors does not justify review for AxE since such factors exist to some degree for many applicants. Review is justified only in situations where the student’s achievement, despite harsh challenges, is truly astounding. Such situations are expected to be rare.

******************************************************************************************

III. Review Process

Applicants who qualify for AxE may be identified by the Undergraduate Admissions office in its regular review of applications, by academic departments, or by the Athletics Department. Applicants identified through any of the aforementioned offices will be processed as follows:

1. Undergraduate Admissions Office: Applicants identified by the Undergraduate Admissions office will be forwarded by the Admissions Counselor to the Assistant Director - Freshman Evaluations, the Assistant Director - Transfer Evaluations, or the...
Assistant Director - International Evaluations as appropriate. Upon review and in consultation with the Director of Admissions, a decision will be made to determine if an AxE offer will be made.

2. Academic Departments: Academic departments, which independently identify applicants, will prepare a letter of endorsement and forward it to the Undergraduate Admissions office for a final decision. The application file will be reviewed by the Assistant Director - Freshman, Transfer, or International Evaluations, who will consult with the Director of Admissions to determine if an AxE offer will be made.

3. Athletics Department: The Athletics Department will prepare a letter of endorsement and forward it to the Undergraduate Admissions office for a final decision. Upon receipt of the Athletic Release Authorization Form and the Request for Admission by Exception Form, the Assistant Director - Freshman, Transfer, or International Evaluations will process the AxE offer.

IV. Special Review Committee

Applicants who do not qualify for AxE and are supported by a UCR faculty, staff, or department may be reviewed by a Special Review Committee (See Appendix A.)

The Special Review Committee will determine the possibility of academic success at UCR based on:

1. Academic history as reported on the Application for Undergraduate Admissions and Scholarships;
2. An academic evaluation by the Undergraduate Admissions Office of all requested official transcripts and completed test scores;
3. The Personal Statement and other indicators
4. Additional requested materials.

As a condition of admission the Special Review Committee may require the applicant to:

1. Meet specific goals at The Learning Center; and/or
2. Meet specific goals from the Athletics Department’s required Study Table; and/or
3. Meet other conditions as deemed appropriate.

Appendix A

Special Review Committee (SRC)

Charge:

Applicants who do not qualify for Admission by Exceptions and are supported by a UCR faculty, staff, or department may be reviewed by a Special Review Committee comprised of UCR faculty, with faculty or staff from the appropriate UCR unit, staff from the Academic Resource Center, and the Director of Undergraduate Admissions as Ex-Officio members. The Special Review Committee will make final admissions decisions and determine the possibility of academic success at UCR based on for such applicants based on its assessment of the likelihood of their academic success at UCR, which in turn is based on:

1. Academic history as reported on the Application for Undergraduate Admissions and Scholarships;
2. An academic evaluation by the Undergraduate Admissions Office of all requested official transcripts and completed test scores;
3. The Personal Statement; and other indicators—Mindy, can we make this more specific? Perhaps say “other relevant materials provided to the Special Review Committee for consideration”;
4. Additional requested materials.

As a condition of admission, the Special Review Committee may require the applicant to:

1. Meet specific goals at The Academic Resource Learning Center; and/or
2. Meet specific goals from the Athletics Department’s required Study Table; and/or
3. Meet other conditions as deemed appropriate.

There will be approximately 3-4 two hour meetings each year with the majority of the meetings occurring during the winter and spring quarters. Meetings may occur during the summer only when necessary.

Membership:

The Special Review Committee is comprised of at least four Academic Senate faculty members and up to five non-voting University faculty or staff members in Ex-Officio status. Membership is as follows:

Senate Faculty Members

Undergraduate Admissions Committee Representative, Chair
- Appointed by the Committee on Undergraduate Admissions

Faculty Representative from CHASS
- Appointed by the Committee on Committees

Faculty Representative from CNAS
- Appointed by the Committee on Committees

Facade Representative from BCOE
- Appointed by the Committee on Committees

Ex-Officio Members

ACE Program Coordinator, The Academic Resource Learning Center
Director of Undergraduate Admissions
Admissions Counselor
Faculty Athletic Representative to NCAA when appropriate
Chair, Committee on International Education when appropriate
Other pertinent individuals as deemed appropriate by the chair

Voting members must recuse themselves from any case file for which they serve as the faculty advocate. Further, the SRC shall be considered a senate committee for the purpose of executing an annual COI.

Justification:

With the recent increase of the AxE guidelines, an increasing number of admission applications are being handled by SRC. We propose adding a member to the SRC, moving the Faculty Athletic Representative to ex-officio status, the appointment of a Chair, and formalizing the process by which members are appointed (by including the Committee on Committees). Currently the appointment process is ad-hoc and conflicts of interests are likely to arise. Additionally, it is difficult to convene enough members to hold a meeting—the addition of a fourth member should assist on this front. The addition of Chair will help the meeting run smoothly.
