

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE
COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES, ARTS, AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

REPORT TO THE RIVERSIDE DIVISION
MAY 23, 2017

To be adopted:

Proposed Changes to Languages and Literatures/Comparative Literature Major

PRESENT:

PROPOSED:

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. Lower-division requirements (20 units plus proficiency) | 1. [no change] |
| a) Proficiency in at least one language (besides English), ancient or modern, through the intermediate level (second year) | a) [no change] |
| b) CPLT 001 or CPLT 001W, CPLT 002 | b) [no change] |
| c) CPLT 017A, CPLT 017B, CPLT 017C | c) [no change] |
| 2. Upper-division requirements (52 units) | 2. Upper-division requirements (48 units) |
| a) Sixteen (16) units in one literature, distributed as much as possible among courses representing the various literary periods | a) [no change] |
| b) Twelve (12) units in a second literature | b) [no change] |
| c) CPLT 110, CPLT 193, (CPLT 196 strongly recommended but not required) | c) [no change] |
| d) Sixteen (16) elective units in Comparative Literature | d) Twelve (12) elective units in Comparative Literature |
| Students contemplating graduate study in Comparative Literature are urged to complete two years in a second (non-English) language before graduation. | [no change] |

Justification:

We are reducing the number of upper-division units required for this program in an effort to meet the UCOP request of streamlining majors.

Approvals:

Approved by the faculty of the Department of Comparative Literature: October 10, 2016

Approved by the Executive Committee of the College of Humanities,
Arts, and Social Sciences: March 1, 2017

Approved by the Committee on Educational Policy: April 17, 2017