To be adopted: Proposed Change to the Russian Studies Major

Present:

MAJOR

Proposed:

MAJOR

1. Lower-division requirement

   a) WRLT 015

2. Upper-division requirements

   a) Language requirement
      Twelve (12) units from RUSN 101 (E-Z), RUSN 102 (E-Z), RUSN 120 (E-Z), RUSN 103

   b) Literature requirement
      Twelve (12) units: RUSN 109A-RUSN 109B-RUSN 109C, RUSN 124, RUSN 181 (E-Z)

Justification:

The Department of Comparative Literature has established WRLT 15 as a new course which will be added as a requirement to all of the majors offered by the Department. The course bridges all three areas of Departmental expertise and interest, and will unify both our students and our curricula by having this course in common. The courses will introduce to majors mainly concerned with any one of the three areas (language, literature, and culture) some ways in which the three are intrinsically connected.

Effective: Fall, 1998

Approved by the Program in Russian on 1/30/98
Approved by the Department of Literatures & Languages on 1/30/98
Approved by CHASS Executive Committee 4/8/98
Approved by Committee on Educational Policy 4/20/98