Proposed

ECONOMICS/LAW AND SOCIETY MAJOR

The major requirements for the B.A. degree in Economics/Law and Society are as follows:

1. Requirements for Economics (44 units)
   a) ECON 002, ECON 003
   b) ECON 119
   c) ECON 102A, ECON 102B, ECON 103A
   d) Twenty (20) additional units of upper-division Economics courses

2. Requirements for Law and Society (36 units)
   a) PHIL 007
   b) LWSO 100
   c) One course chosen from the following list:
      ECON 111, PSYC 012, SOC 110A (or equivalent course in research methods)
   d) Five courses chosen from the following list:
      ANTH 127, ECON 119, HISE 153, PHIL 183, POSC 167, SOC 159 (One of these courses may be replaced by a substitute choice from a list of courses published annually by the Law and Society Faculty Committee. Not more than two of the courses taken to meet this requirement (2.d) may be from the same department).
   e) LWSO 193

Note: In filling the dual requirements of the major, students may not count more than two courses toward both parts of their total requirements. (This limitation applies to specified Economics requirements and Law and Society requirements.)

Justification: Provide a more accessible research methods course to students in this major.
