

COMMITTEE ON UNIVERSITY EXTENSION
ANNUAL REPORT TO THE RIVERSIDE DIVISION
DECEMBER 4, 2018

To be received and placed on file:

The Committee on University Extension met three times this Academic Year and conducted a virtual meeting through iLearn and email in June 2018. In the 2017-2018 academic year the Committee examined and approved 651 course and instructor proposals in the X300-400 series. The Committee also approved 50 proposals for extension certificates and diplomas.

The Committee reviewed the Sustainability Ad Hoc Committee report and UCR 5-Year Planning Perspectives for 2018-2023 and did not note any concerns regarding the Committee's purview of University Extension.

The Committee reviewed the Open Access 2020 proposal did not note any concerns regarding the Committee's purview of University Extension. However, the Committee did recommend that the proposal be submitted for review by the Dean of University Extension.

The Committee consulted with the Dean of University of Extension at each meeting and provided recommendations for academic programs offered at University Extension.

The Committee would like to commend University Extension for their continuing efforts to expand offerings in new directions, and for the high quality of all programs. University Extension has developed a number of very innovative programs this year, and the quality of instructors continues to be excellent. The Committee would like to thank the Dean of University Extension, Kevin Vaughn, and University Extension Academic Services Coordinator Linda Coco for an excellent job in presenting the best candidates for review and approval by the Committee and for promptly providing additional information for proposals as requested.
